Rally Point Guns Gears Up for Rifle Season with 1st Annual Big Buck Contest

By Jamiee Joiner

Will you get the biggest buck this year? Calling all local hunters as they prepare for the upcoming rifle season, Rally Point Guns in Middleburg is bringing some extra excitement and incentive for you to try to get the biggest buck with its first annual Big Buck Contest.

Rally Point Guns is owned and operated by Jarek Glenny, an Army veteran who served in Afghanistan and is an avid, lifelong hunter. His gun shop, located at 6491 Route 522 in Middleburg, Pennsylvania, will be hosting and self-sponsoring its inaugural Rifle Big Buck Contest which kicks off the day after Black Friday, Saturday, November 28th, 2026. Hunters can begin to register for the contest now through Friday, November 27th. Entry fee is $10 for those aged seventeen and older (Adult Division) and free for those who are aged sixteen and under (Junior Division).

After registering for the contest, hunters are invited to bring their harvest to Rally Point Guns during regular open business hours to be measured. Bucks will be scored based upon the widest inside antler width, main beam length, each tine length, and total number of points. All deer entered must be taken by legally licensed rifle hunters within Pennsylvania borders during legal hunting hours. No exceptions!

Prizes in the Adult Division will be a $100 Rally Point Guns gift card for first place and a $50 Rally Point Guns gift card for second place. The Junior Division prizes will be a $25 Rally Point Guns gift card for first place and a $10 Rally Point Guns gift card for second place.

Besides this exciting contest, Rally Point Guns offers top notch custom services and is your one stop shop for all the hunting, shooting, and tactical gear you could want. Offering a well-rounded selection of firearms, suppressors, factory ammunition and reloading supplies including powder and bullets for custom handloading as well as offering custom ammo ordering for any firearm. As an authorized dealer, Glenny is licensed to sell suppressors and has an on-site Silencer Shop Kiosk. He also is authorized as a Vortex dealer for scopes, red dot sights, and binoculars.

They offer targets of all kinds, Spartan mounts to display your firearms and specialized cleanings supplies and custom cleaning mats which include a diagram of parts which can be customizable to almost any firearm. The shop also sells start-from-seed products for food plots and offers veteran-founded Black Rifle Coffee and a nice variety of T-shirts and hats from Vortex and Hornady.

Beyond the retail items you can find at Rally Point Guns, Jarek's self-taught skills in laser engraving and hydro-dipping have brought a wide variety of items that can be custom-crafted and personalized with finishes to suit your needs. He can customize your firearms, magazines, or slate coasters with over one hundred available stock designs, or customers can bring in their own custom artwork or materials to be engraved including slate, brass, steel, aluminum, or copper. His hydro-dipping services include custom prep, painting, and water-transfer film printing with activator application and finish adding that unique pattern of choice to your gear. These personalized options would make a great gift for the holidays.

Be sure to stop by the shop to register for the Big Buck Contest, check out their in-store selections and customizable options, and pick up a gift card for someone special.

Outside burning beats inside. Every time.
There's a reason we build campfires outside and not in our living rooms. It's just fact, there's a much safer, cleaner, and more comfortable option. When it comes to wood burning heat...we say, take it outside.

Susquehanna University Music Ensembles To Present Concerts In November

Susquehanna University's various music ensembles will present several concerts through the month of November. All performances are free and open to the public and will take place in Stretansky Concert Hall in Susquehanna's Cunningham Center for Music & Art.

Susquehanna University's String Session will perform a concert at 7:30 p.m. Friday, Nov. 6. Under the direction of Zachary Levi, assistant professor of music, the String Session will perform a mixture of classical and contemporary pieces designed to showcase their talents as artists. This concert comes as the closing to the String Session Festival, an event that provides high school string musicians (grades 9-12) the opportunity to work with distinguished Susquehanna faculty and connect with dedicated music majors and other high school musicians.

Susquehanna University's Flute Studio will present a concert at 2:30 p.m. Sunday, Nov. 8. Under the direction of Leslie Cullen, adjunct faculty member in music, students from the studio will perform a recital featuring solo and chamber music for the flute. The program highlights the work of emerging performers through a repertoire that spans a variety of musical styles and periods.

Susquehanna University's Symphonic Band will perform a concert at 7:30 p.m. Saturday, Nov. 14. Under the direction of Eric Hinton, department head and associate professor of music, the Symphonic Band will perform a sampling of music for wind and percussion instruments written after America's 1976 bicentennial. These pieces include Carolyn Bremmer's Early Light, Eric Whitacre's October, John Barnes Chance's Variations on a Korean Folk Song, Ayateh Shabazz's In His Grace, Frank Ticheli's Cajun Folk Songs II and John Wasson's Christmastide Celebration. As a nod to Susquehanna's Spotlight on Historic American Music concert series, the band will also perform Harry Alford's Roll 'Em Up with percussion soloist John Lester, of the Paragon Ragtime Orchestra.

The Symphonic Band's program traces how music for the wind band has evolved throughout the past 50 years. These permutations include changes to the use of ensemble color, rhythmic content and other elements that can be heard throughout the progression of works.

Snyder County Historical Society to Host Program

By Kay Poeth

The Snyder County Historical Society (SCHS) is proud to present the program, "Thomas Jefferson, Joseph Priestly& the Spirit of Enlightenment: How a Virginian Aristocrat and an English Dissenter Shaped Faith, Reason, and the American Republic", on Sunday, November8 at 2 pm.

Shikellamy School District history teacher, Craig Specht, will examine the friendship and intellectual connections between Thomas Jefferson and Joseph Priestley, two influential Enlightenment figures, who helped shape the political and religious culture of the United States. Though separated by background and nationality, they shared a common commitment to reason, reform, religious freedom, and the pursuit of happiness as they understood it in their time. Their relationship illuminates the challenges of the Early Republic and shows how many of the questions they wrestled with remain part of the American experiment today.

Craig Specht currently teaches eighth-grade American history and serves as a forensics coach and advisor. He is also the creator of Thomas Spills the Tea, a history project dedicated to bringing the founding era to life through storytelling, primary sources, and wit. He is a board member of the Joseph Priestley House Museum, serves on the National Constitution Center's Teacher Advisory Board, and was recently named a Civic Virtue Fellow for the 2026-2027 school year by the National Constitution Center.

The annual meeting and election of officers for 2027 will also take place during the afternoon. This is the final program of the 2026 year. There were many interesting and unique programs offered this season with an increase in attendance. Thanks to all for their support of the Snyder County Historical Society.

The program is free to the public. Located at 30 East Market Street in Middleburg, the Snyder County Historical Society is handicapped accessible.Light refreshments will be served following the program.

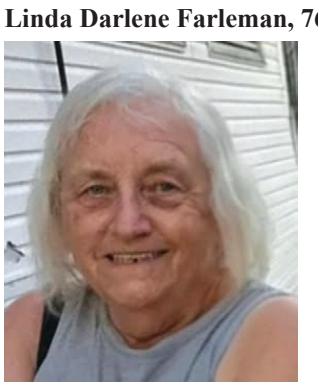
Obituaries

Linda Darlene Farleman, 76, of Lewisburg,



Linda Darlene Farleman, 76, of Lewisburg, Pennsylvania, went home to be with her Father in Heaven after passing away unexpectedly on Saturday, October 17, 2026.

Linda was a 1968 graduate of Mifflinburg Area High School. She had many jobs throughout her life and most recently worked at Wood-Mode as a door presser before retiring. In retirement, she became close with many members of the Amish community, becoming a friend, supportive ear, and helping hands to many.

Linda found joy in life's simple pleasures, especially caring for every animal and pet and tending to her plants and flowers. She could often be found working in her garden or sitting on her porch, with her favorite tea and an apple, soaking up the sunshine.

Above all, Linda treasured spending time with her husband, children, grandchildren, and her dog, Ivy Rose. Her funny, goofy personality brought laughter to everyone around her, and her own smile and laughter were contagious, lighting up every room she was in. Her endearing clumsiness became a family trait lovingly passed down through all generations. Her family will carry not only their cherished memories of her, but also the laughter and quirks that made her such a unique and beautiful Linda.

Linda is survived by her beloved husband and best friend, Terry Farleman, with whom she shared 46 beautiful years with since their marriage on August 30th of 1980. She is also survived by her daughters, Kimberly (Mark) Weader and Jaime (Cody) Boop; her four grandchildren, Hailee, Elizabeth, Max, and Isabella; and her great-granddaughter, Serenity; sister-in-laws, Marilyn (Dave) Collings, and Sherri (Matt) Norword; along with many nieces and nephews.

She was preceded in death by her parents, John and Blanche Stover, and her beloved labrador retriever, Maggie May.

A viewing was held from 12:30 pm – 2:00 pm on Monday, Oct. 26, 2026, at Hummel Funeral Home, 574 Hill Street, Middleburg, followed by the funeral service at 2:00 pm with Pastor Paul Sheets officiating.

Interment was in Zion Church Cemetery, Middleburg.

THE VIEW FROM HEAR

BY RON BOLT

The second season has begun in field hockey and we are well represented for the district playoffs. Mifflinburg (17-1) finished their regular season with five games in six days. The Cats beat Lewisburg 2-1 in OT and Warrior Run 8-0. Kira Shoemaker scored the game winning goal in OT and Avery Reibsome had two assists. Maize Sauder scored the first goal.

Midd-West (14-4) won their first ever HAC 1 title by going 8-0 in conference. Coach Lyndee Harro has done a great job coaching this Midd-West team. Harro was a four year varsity starter at Midd-West and a four year starter at Lebanon Valley College. Senior Maesyn Franguet became just the third MW field hockey player to hit the 100 career point list, joining Brenna Brown and Abigail Benner.

Districts started this past Tuesday and our four teams played their first games on Thursday. Please note that if you want to read this article before you get it in your mailbox, you can access it online Thursday mornings. Go to www.snydercountytimes.com or www.unioncountytimes.com.

Mifflinburg is the #1 seed, Midd-West #2, Selinsgrove #4 and Lewisburg #6 in District 4. I told you we were well represented. Midd-West is in a better place as the second seed as Miff has a tougher road to get to the district finals. Mifflinburg must get past the winner of a much improved Milton team or perennial power Central Columbia in their first game. Then they must beat Selinsgrove just to get to the finals. Midd-West´s path to the finals is much easier.

Lewisburg played Line Mountain Thursday and MW followed that game against the Bloom/Muncy winner. Selinsgrove (11-7) played Northwest Area and Miff played Central/Milton winner Thursday. The semi-finals are being played Monday 11/2.

Juniata Christian (18-1-1) will start their Class A boys soccer districts against league rival Norry Christian in Middleburg on Saturday. JCS's only loss this year was to Norry Christian.

Defending state champion Lewisburg (14-2-1) finished the regular season with a 4-0 shutout of Montoursville. Daedrian Campbell and Dylan Vogel got the scoring started as both scored a goal with an assist from the other. The number 2 seeded Green Dragons play Loyalsock on Saturday in their 2A district opener.

The 3A districts have top seeded Midd-West playing #4 Selinsgrove in Danville at 4pm Saturday.

In girls soccer, Mifflinburg (5-12) lost to undefeated Central Columbia in their district opener. Once again, a team that wins only 29% of their games should not qualify for postseason play. Number #2 seed Midd-West played Milton and #6 Lewisburg played Wellsboro. In class 3A Grove will play Shik Saturday in Danville.

Lewisburg freshman Bryce Bussom finished sixteenth at the class 2A PIAA state golf championships. Bussom carded a two day total of 150. The winning score was 140. Midd-West golfer Brady Gunkle finished 72nd in the 3A state finals with a 178. The winner shot a blistering 10 under 130.

The Midd-West football team came back with two TDs in the fourth quarter behind the record setting arm of QB Witten Carter. Carter found D'Angelo Drumheller for both TDs in the Mustangs 14-10 win. Carter threw for 242 yards and averaged over 20 yards per completion for a 109 passer rating. Konnor Kullman caught three passes for 99 yards and Drumheller totaled 73 yards.

Selinsgrove (3-6) dug a 20-0 hole they couldn't escape in losing 27-18 to Tamaqua. This sets up an interesting end of regular season game as it will be Grove or Milton grabbing the last spot available in the 4A district tourney. More on that in a bit.

Jonathan Neidig had a game with 186 yards receiving on eight catches and one TD. Rocco Amato threw for 255 total yards. That wasn't enough to stop the Tamaqua rushing attack that has run for over 2,160 yards this year and ran it 57 times for 301 in Selinsgrove.

The Seals host Southern Columbia and are underdogs. Milton plays Warrior Run and is favored. Grove is in the district tourney with a win. I´m not sure how the power ratings will end with a Grove loss and Milton win. The scores won't be a factor but the year-end win/loss records of the teams Selinsgrove and Milton played will be the deciding point. Selinsgrove currently has a 3 point power rating lead in the Gimpware Power Rating System.

This might sound crazy, but the winner between Mifflinburg and Lewisburg this week might determine who takes the fourth spot in the 4A district playoffs. Selinsgrove lost to Mifflinburg and Milton lost to Lewisburg last week. Grove is pulling for Miff and Milton is rooting for Lewisburg because Milton/Miff didn't play each other nor did Lewisburg/Selinsgrove. The strength of schedule will affect the power ratings.

Lewisburg (5-4) pulled away from Milton (3-6) winning 35-14 after being tied 14-14 at halftime. Dragon QB Xavier Carter threw for 241 yards and five TDs for a 141.7 passer rating. Drake Osunde caught three of those TDs and totaled 111 yards. Erhan Coleman ran for 112 yards to pace a well-balanced offensive attack. Lewisburg will host cross-county rival Mifflinburg this weekend as both teams are already qualified for 3A districts.

Mifflinburg (7-2) heads into the 'Little Brown Jug' game after handling pre-season district title favorite Montoursville 21-7. Cats QB Brennen Snyder scored on TD runs of 34 and 35 yards. Thousand yard rusher Landon Moser bled the game clock with a workman-like game with 23 carries for 74 yards. Jackson Marr caught four passes for 99 yards.

The Miff defense held the Warriors to its fewest total yards gained all year by 40 yards. Montoursville played state powers Mt. Carmel and Southern Columbia earlier this year. Defense and being able to run the ball travels well no matter where you play or the weather.

Throw out the records when the two Union county schools play each other. Both teams are well-balanced offensively and they both have speed to burn. I would favor Lewisburg if Bill Thomas was still their offensive coordinator. Coach Thomas ran a play with the running back coming out of the backfield straight through the line and catching a pass twenty yards downfield. It worked every time and coach Shiflett knew it was coming.

Miff coach Cody Botts has something going on in western Union county and the football program has never looked this good. Good luck to both teams and Selinsgrove and Milton will be watching.

Speaking of watching, have you watched any of the Minnesota Vikings games this year? They are the only undefeated team left in the NFL and their QB is Kyler Murray. This is his first year in Minnesota and he is continuing a trend that´s been going on for a few years.

Second and third beginnings are happening all across the league. Teams are quick to trade a quarterback if he doesn´t live up to expectations or maybe they realize they made a mistake in drafting them so early. Murray toiled in Arizona for seven long years after winning the Heisman trophy and being the first pick of the 2019 draft. He lost his only playoff game.

The Vikings aren´t undefeated because of Murray's play but rather their stellar defense and easy early schedule. Murray is not being asked to win games but to not lose them because of turnovers. He´s not alone.

Last year's Super Bowl winning QB was playing for his fifth team in seven years. Sam Darnold was the third pick in 2018 by the NY Jets. The well-traveled Darnold found his groove in Minnesota two years ago but was only keeping the seat warm for JJ McCarthy.

McCarthy was drafted by the Vikings with the tenth pick of the 2024 draft. He started only ten games for the Vikes due to injury or poor play. He was recently traded to the NY Giants and was named their starter a week later. He led the upset over Houston last weekend. JJ´s a great QB when a Harbaugh is coaching him.

Baker Mayfield was the first pick in the 2018 draft by the Browns. Baker led Cleveland to their first playoff game and win in 18 years. The Browns pursued Deshaun Watson instead of keeping Mayfield, proving how dysfunctional their owner really is. Baker moved through Carolina and LA before making his mark in Tampa. Sometimes a change of your surroundings is all you need.

Parity also exists in college football as there are only three undefeated teams left after eight weeks. The U, the Utes and UCLA. No team will get to 10-0 because of NIL and the transfer portal. Backups at all the Alabama´s, Ohio State's and USC´s of college football are playing elsewhere.

Eight top-10 teams (4 in the top-5) lost to unranked teams over the last two weekends alone. There is no great team in college football this year and this is the new reality. Money, parity and bad officiating is blurring the line between pro and college football. I´m not complaining, I crave chaos in football. I never thought I would see the day when the Big 12 has a better overall football conference than the Big 10!

I was really looking forward to watching the World Series this year but it was over before I got started. Comments and questions welcomed at theviewfromhear74@gmail.com

HALLOWEEN

THREE BIG SUPER LATE MODEL EVENTS OVER THE WEEKEND, BIG 410&358 SPRINT RACE AT BAPS

Two big paying super late models races on Saturday night at Hidden Valley and Potomac, while on Sunday Delaware speedway had supers on Sunday. The 410-sprints were at BAPS along with a special race for the 358-sprints, with still some racing planned for this weekend and the second Saturday in November

Went to Hidden Valley on Saturday night for the first time since the 2000 racing season. The last time I was there the track was called Gamblers speedway, because the promoter at the time said it was a Gamble to run a speedway so that is why he called it. After that the track by different names until the Luzer family who built the track went back to the name Hidden Valley Dan Savino has been running the speedway for the last few years first on Saturday and then five years ago went to a Friday night program. This race was on Saturday and special for the super late models, for the second time this year. The track usually runs limited late models and other divisions. On this night they had 20-mix of super and limited late models , along with two different types of four cylinders, front wheel drive and rear wheel drive, along with pure stocks E-Mods. The first race was for the Pure stock which was won by a former late model driver Rich Singelton of Hesston PA. Rick, a big man, spent one part of a season on the Seattle Seahawks football team. A leg injury forced him to get out of the sport before he really had a chance to give it a good try. Rick had last won a race at the Valley in the 1995 and stated that he did not race much this year and hopes to make more races at the Valley in the 2027 season. In the super late model, Colton Flinner of Allision Park PA led all 35-laps for the $3,500 top prize. Flinner had to survive a number of cautions, a red flag for a blocked track and a late race challenge from Levi Yetter for the win. Yetter was second with Doug Eck, Brad Benton in a limited late and Del Rouguex in the top five. For Flinner, the Marion Center speedway track champion, it was his seventh win of the season with four of them coming at Marion Center, one at Hidden Valley, one at Dog Hollow, and one at Roaring Knob. This was the last race of the season for Colton who is very excited about the 2027 season with the good way things ended for him late this season with some extra help. Second place Levi Yetter is planning one more race this year at Portsmouth speedway in Ohio this weekend. The 20-year-old driver will be racing for $10,000 top prize on Friday and $50,000 to win on Saturday. Potomac speedway in Maryland for the supers in a ULMS series final point race of the year. Going into the event Jon Lee of Summerville won the series points with his sixth-place finish in the feature, which was won by Mason Zeigler of Chalk Hill Pa, with Bryan Bernhiesel of Jonestown second Shaun Jones of Shermansdale was third Trevor Feathers of Winchester Va and Derrick Quade in the top five. For Zeigler, it was his 10th overall win of the series where he won the championship last year. His seventh overall win this season, with his second-place finish, Bernheisel placed second in the series points 305 behind Jon Lee. Both drivers were in their first full year of running with the series. Dylan Lewis, Ken Schaffer and Kevin Smith in the top five in points. Of the 27 drivers on hand again, it was a mix of super and limited late model drivers in the field. The two tracks that I have been writing about do not run super as a regular division. On Sunday at Delaware speedway Trevor Feathers who is back in the Roland/Mann #72 for some late season racing, scored the win on Sunday and the $3,000 dollars for his win. Since began back in the #72 Trevor has placed third at Bedford fourth at Potomac and now a win at Delaware. Feathers beat Derek Mcgee, Shaun Jones, Ross Robinson, and Gene Knaub for the win, the race drew a field of 17 drivers from four different states, Virgina, Maryland, Delaware and Pennsylvania.

At BAPS speedway on Saturday, they had a field of 40-410 sprints and 30-358 sprints, with Chase Dietz of York Pa winning the 410-feature at BAPS for his fifth win there this season, and his 27th overall this season. Anthony Macri of Dillsburg Pa was second with Logan Rumsey of Manchester Pa, Tyler Ross of Lincoln University Pa and Buddy Schweinbinz Tuckahoe NJ in the top five. In the 358-sprint feature Adam Carberry of Hilltown Pa was the feature winner over Brock Hammaker of Grantville, Chris Arnold of Wellsville Pa, Tyler Ulrich Denver Pa, and Andy Best of Dover Delaware in the top five. With his sixth-place finish Derek Locke of Mechanicsburg Pa. is the BAPS 358-sprint track champion. He had one win, four top fives and six top tens in the six-feature run for the division. Last month he won the Williams Grove title for the fourth time in his career. Cody Fletcher was second, losing out by 55 points with Brock Hammaker third 100 out Wyatt Hinkle and Tyler Ruthford in the top five. Chase Dietz, I believe he has wrapped up the BAPS 410-sprint points standings Chase has a 335 led over Danny Dietrich with one more race left on Saturday November 14th .Cameron Smith, Tyler Ross and Logan Rumsey are in the top five in points going into the final race, which will be the 10th race run for the 410-sprints at BAPS this season other winners besides Dietz Cameron Smith with two wins with single wins going to Anthony Macri and Troy Wagaman Jr. The track also ran a non-winners race on Saturday with Cole Dewease in his new ride #27 picking up the win over Jayden Wolf, Brett Strickler, Brent Shearer and Jordan Strickler. Two more sprint races this season with the one at BAPS along with this coming Saturday at Bridgeport speedway in NJ. The 410sprints will be racing for $15,000 to win and they will also have a non-winners feature race that was won last year by Mike Thompson. Last year's 410-sprint race was won by Justin Whittall over Chase Dietz with Anthony Macri, Danny Dietrich and Lance Dewease in the top five. Going into the final sprint races on the local scene Chase Dietz has already wrapped up the Keystone series points by a wide margin 1335 to 692 for Danny Dietrach, with Freddie Rahmer, Troy Wagaman Jr and Anthony Macri. Dietz had won track points title at Williams Grove, Selinsgrove, Lincoln, and BAPS, the Keystone and lead the Pa Posse points with 1623 to 1493 for Danny Dietrich for 130 leads with the two races left, Troy Wagaman Jr is third with Justin Whittall and Ryan Smith in the top five. Justin Whittall who was looking for a ride after his team decided to shut down the #67 operation, has landed a ride with the Maik Heffner owned #27H for the 2027 season the team plans to run 50-55 race next year. For the super late models they have a race this weekend at Georgetown Speedway in Delaware for a $3,000 to win event and that number can increase with a gamblers fee for $50 feature winner will get $4,000 and for $1000 the winner will get $5,000.

Other racing events this Saturday McGrew Bid Motoplex inside the big track at BAPS, will have nine divisions show with a number of Micro-sprint classes in action starting at 1pm while the Greenwood Valley Action track will be racing Saturday with a number of micro divisions and a few go-kart classes starting at 3pm.

I want to personally thank all the sponsors for helping to support the racing page in both the Snyder and Union County Times for the 2026 season. I hope we can do this again in the 2027 season. Thanks to Selinsgrove Speedway, Ritz-Trans, Horstcraft Millworks, River Valley Builders, Clinton County Speedway and Beaver Springs Dragway, That is a wrap for the 2026 season! Stay safe and healthy this winter season!

PA Game Commission Urges Drivers to Stay Alert as Deer Activity Peaks

Deer are becoming increasingly active this time of year and with daylight-saving time set to end on November 1, 2026, the Pennsylvania Game Commission is urging motorists to slow down and remain vigilant on the roads.

Autumn marks a surge in deer activity as the fall breeding season, known as the "rut," approaches. During this period, many yearling bucks leave their birth areas in search of new territory, sometimes dozens of miles away. At the same time, adult bucks are actively roaming their home ranges in pursuit of doe, often chasing those they encounter.

The end of daylight-saving time means more vehicles will be on the road during dusk and dawn, which are the peak hours for deer movement.

"The rut is an exciting time for hunters but needs to be a time of heightened awareness for drivers," said Game Commission Executive Director Steve Smith. "Whitetails are ramping up their activity levels and expanding their home ranges, so it's imperative that motorists exercise increased caution and attentiveness during this time of year."

Data from around the country has shown that Pennsylvania drivers face some of the highest risks of vehicle collisions with deer or other large animals. However, drivers can reduce their chances of collisions with deer by staying alert, obeying the state's cell phone laws and understanding deer behavior. Paying close attention while driving on stretches marked with "Deer Crossing" signs can make a difference.

Deer often travel in groups and walk single file. So even if one deer successfully crosses the road in front of a driver, it doesn't mean the threat is over. Another could be right behind it.

A driver who hits a deer with a vehicle is not required to report the accident to the Game Commission. If the deer dies, only Pennsylvania residents may claim the carcass. To do so, they can call the Game Commission at 1-833-PGC-HUNT or 1-833-PGC-WILD and an agency dispatcher will collect the information needed to provide a free permit number, which the caller should write down.

A resident must call within 24 hours of taking possession of the deer. A passing Pennsylvania motorist also may claim the deer, if the person whose vehicle struck it doesn't want it.

Those taking possession of road-killed deer are reminded that rules related to Chronic Wasting Disease (CWD) are still in effect.

If a deer is struck by a vehicle but not killed, drivers are urged to maintain their distance because some deer might recover and move on. However, if a deer does not move on or poses a public safety risk, drivers are encouraged to report the incident to the Game Commission or another law-enforcement agency. If the deer must be put down, the Game Commission will direct the proper person to do so.

To report a dead deer for removal from state roads, motorists can call the Pennsylvania Department of Transportation at 1-800-FIX-ROAD.

Fall Turkey Season Kicks Off October 31

This year, Trick-or-treating isn't the only thing to look forward to on Saturday, Oct. 31. The Pennsylvania Game Commission (PGC) announces the fall 2026 turkey season will kick off in 20 of the state's 22 Wildlife Management Units (WMUs) on Halloween.

Fall turkey hunting is closed in WMUs 5C and 5D. For the remaining WMUs, the season lengths are as follows: WMUs 1A, 2G, 3A, 4A, 4B and 4D: Oct. 31-Nov. 15; WMUs 1B, 3D, 4C and 4E: Oct. 31-Nov. 8; WMUs 2A, 2F, 3B, and 3C: Oct. 31-Nov. 15 and Nov. 25-27; WMUs 2B, 2C, 2D and 2E: Oct. 31-Nov. 20 and Nov. 25-27; and WMU 5A and 5B: Oct. 31-Nov. 3. Hunters are advised that the three-day Thanksgiving season again will run Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday, only in applicable WMUs.

As a reminder, no single-projectile firearms may be used in the fall turkey seasons. Hunters may use shotguns with fine shot and archery gear only. While fall turkey hunters no longer are required to wear fluorescent orange, the PGC highly recommends the use of orange, especially while moving.

SEASON OUTLOOK

Everyone who purchases a hunting license receives one fall turkey tag, as well as one spring tag. During the fall season, any turkey can be harvested, and female turkeys typically account for more than 50 percent of the fall harvest. The length of the fall season in each WMU is dictated by the turkey population trend. Units with increasing population trends can support more fall turkey hunting opportunities.

"Last year, fall turkey hunters gained some additional hunting opportunities on Sundays that fell within the pre-approved season dates," said Game Commission Wild Turkey Biologist Reina Tyl. "For this year, seasons that typically closed on a Saturday had their closing date pushed to the following Sunday. The statewide turkey recruitment was up this year, from 2025, and all but one WMU had a recruitment ratio greater than 2.0 poults per hen, as estimated from turkey summer sighting survey reports. Fall turkey hunters, in most WMUs, may find more or larger brood-flocks compared to last season."

The annual turkey summer sighting survey was conducted during July and August and the number of turkey sightings was up slightly from last year, with 10,888 reported, compared to 10,674 in 2025. The statewide reproductive index for 2026 came in at 2.83 poults per all hens observed, which was greater than the 2025 index of 2.67. This was still below the previous five-year average of 2.94 poults per hen. At the WMU level, only one WMU had a reproductive index below 2.0 poults per hen (1.78 in WMU 4D), indicating reasonably good reproductive success in most parts of the Commonwealth.

"Participation in the annual turkey summer sighting survey is open to the public," said Tyl. "These turkey observations provide us with an important tool to monitor the health of our wild turkey population. This index of reproductive success is used in our turkey population model and helps inform fall turkey season recommendations."

Reproductive success varies annually due to many factors, particularly spring and summer rainfall, temperature, habitat conditions, predation, insect abundance, and hen condition. The condition a hen enters the reproductive season is often influenced by fall and winter food availability and weather severity.

Harvests and reporting

Successful fall turkey hunters must tag their birds according to instructions provided on the printed harvest tags supplied with their licenses, then report harvests. Mentored hunters under age 7 now receive their own fall turkey tag and no longer need to have a tag transferred to them by their mentor. The turkey must be tagged immediately after harvest and before the turkey is moved, and the tag must be securely attached to a leg until the bird is prepared for consumption or mounting.

Within ten days of harvest, turkey hunters must report harvests to the Game Commission, either by going online to www.pgc.pa.gov, or calling 1-800-838-4431 (toll-free), or mailing in a prepaid post card. Hunters will need their license and harvest tag in front of them when they make the call. Hunters should record the supplied confirmation number for the turkey reported.

All hunters reporting harvests are asked to identify the WMU, county, and township where the bird was taken, as well as the sex and age of the turkey.

Additionally, hunters may harvest a turkey that has been leg-banded or has a transmitter for research purposes. If so, they should follow the instructions on the band or the transmitter. Last winter, the PGC leg-banded more than 450 turkeys, (and more than 4,500 since 2020). More than 500 wild turkeys, both male and female, were fitted with backpack-style transmitters from 2022-2025 for research projects. While these turkeys are not being monitored anymore, some of these birds may still be alive and available for harvest.

Handling harvested birds

While wild turkeys are highly susceptible to highly pathogenic avian influenza (HPAI), their behavior and habitat place them at a lower risk of contracting the disease, compared to waterfowl, shorebirds, raptors, and avian scavengers.

HPAI viruses can be carried by wild birds and have been found across Pennsylvania. To protect themselves, and to reduce the risk of spreading this extremely contagious disease to other birds, hunters are advised to practice the following precautions:

- Use dedicated footwear, clothing, and tools that are only for handling and/or dressing harvested wild birds.
- Do not handle or harvest wild birds that appear sick or are found dead.
- Wear gloves when handling or dressing harvested wild birds.
- Do not eat, drink, or smoke when handling or dressing harvested wild birds.
- Dress harvested wild birds in the field.
- Double bag any offal and feathers that will be removed from the field.
- Wash your hands with soap and water or an alcohol-based hand sanitizer immediately after handling or dressing harvested wild birds.
- Wash all tools and work surfaces with soap and water after using them, then disinfect with a 10 percent household bleach solution. Allow them to air dry or rinse after ten minutes of contact time.
- Change footwear and clothing before coming in contact with any domestic poultry or pet birds.

While influenza viruses can infect humans, the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention has declared that currently in the United States, "Viruses circulating in birds are believed to pose a low risk to the general public."

Any sick or dead domestic birds should be reported to the Pennsylvania Department of Agriculture at 717-772-2852. Sick or dead wild birds should be reported to the Game Commission at 1-833-PGC-WILD.

Selinsgrove Halloween Parade was held Tuesday Night on Market Street. "Spectators Flooded Market St!!" said Kristopher Stahl "the weather was perfect." Over 70 registered organizations and businesses created over 50 floats with hundreds of children and adults comprising the parade. "Always a crazy fun event for the downtown of Selinsgrove", exclaimed Barbara Kummerer. "This parade is for the children and from what I saw they all had a great time."

Businesses in downtown Selinsgrove were overflowing with customers. "The volunteers really make this thing happen," said Carol Handlan. "Thanks to Chris Kenawell's State Farm office, Handling registrations, forming of parade and many other details." Much hard work from following people: the forming team of Kristopher Stahl, Chris Kenawell, State Farm Agent in Selinsgrove; Barb Kummerer, and her team of judges; the emcees, Shelly & the Harry Man from B98.3; Selinsgrove Borough employees and Police; fire police volunteers; and Selinsgrove Rotary. Thousands from community lined the Market Street parade route of over a mile to view the parade. The parade committee would especially like to thank Chris Kenawell's State Farm team Barb Kummerer, Jeanne Parra, Casey Stahl. These people spent many hours taking registrations and patiently answering questions about the parade. This is the kind of event that showcases Selinsgrove's small-town charm. It is wonderful how the community comes together to celebrate All Hallows Eve; even if it is a little early. The winners are listed above.

UCHS to Host Program "Willard Leiby: Crime and Corruption in Central PA"

By Kay Poeth

The Leiby Mansion provided a location for numerous illegal operations of crime and corruption in Central Pennsylvania.

Arlene Wolfe!Who was this beautiful woman and what was her connection to Willard Leiby?

This slot machine may be one of the few remaining slot machines left from the Leiby empire!

The Union County Historical Society will host the program, "Willard Leiby: Crime and Corruption in Central PA" presented by Dr. Mary Sullivan on Sunday, November 8 at 2:30 pm at The Gallery. The public is invited to attend.

Willard Leiby was a "native son" of Lewisburg but his extensive criminal history encompassed a five-county area. While dabbling in rum-running, illegal gambling, human trafficking, bribery, tax evasion and election interference during his storied career, Leiby was also described as a "man of the people". Is there more to this man than meets the eye? You decide…

The Union Co Historical Society invites you to hear more about Willard Leiby and his dastardly deeds on Sunday, November 8 beginning at 2:30 pm. Don't miss this intriguing program being presented by Dr. Mary Sullivan at the Gallery located at 15 N. Water Street in Lewisburg.

Selinsgrove REC Hosted Y2K Adult Prom

By Kay Poeth

These Y2K Adult Prom attendees strike a pose before they "Get The Party Started!"

Guests danced and laughed as they stepped back in time during the Y2K Adult Prom hosted by the REC with proceeds benefiting the after-school program.

After spritzing on the Love Spell body mist and channeling their inner Elle Woods or the hunky charm of Heath Ledger, the Y2K Adult Prom was in full swing, with approximately 50 guests registered. One wall featured popular movies from that generation including Legally Blonde, Notting Hill, Runaway Bride, American Pie, She's All That, Bring It On, Charlie's Angels, and Knight's Tale.

Attendees were having a great time dancing, taking selfies, and supporting a worthwhile cause of the REC. The evening featured hors d'oeuvres, drinks, and Y2K music with special areas for socializing, photo opportunities, and of course, the crowning of the "Best Dressed" prom King and Queen.

Congratulations to the crowned King and Queen of the Y2K Adult Prom, Bucky Price and Courtney Robinson-Price. This fun-filled evening was hosted by the Selinsgrove REC.

"We went to high school together and we are reminiscing about all the silly things we did at our prom… and we are still making bad decisions all these years later," chuckled Lizz Hendricks.

Kelly Straub quickly added, "High School were the good old days. I would do them all over again!"

Darin and Jaime Namminga were enjoying the ambiance of the evening. "I like the community coming together for a good cause and supporting the REC."

Guests danced and laughed as they stepped back in time. The DJ played the pumping tunes with the pounding bass. A silver disco ball, rays of colored lights, and shooting stars flitted across the room.When the DJ played Los del Rio's Macarena, the dance floor filled with guests moving to the rhythmic beat of the music and popular choreography.

Sitting under the balloon arch with a sign announcing "2000s Baby"were Rhonda McCurdy and her husband. "I am excited to see so many young people here. I thought it would be all REC donors, but I got to meet different people supporting the causes of the REC in a unique and fun way."

In front of the shiny CD wall, couples were posing for pictures. Later, the photographs were displayed as attendees voted for "Best Dressed". Congratulations to the crowned King and Queen of the Y2K Adult Prom, Bucky Price and Courtney Robinson-Price.

"I love that this night takes me back to the vibes of when I went to prom at Selinsgrove High School. I am proud to support the REC," said Courtney Robinson Price.

Sponsors for the Adult Prom included W&L Subaru, Sheri Marshall - Edward Jones, Chic Bow-tique, National Beef, Kreamer Feed, and Stahl Sheaffer Engineering.

Proceeds from the Y2K Adult Prom will support the REC's free after school and summer Drop-in Program which serve area youth age 8-18.

United Way's "Diaper Dash" Kicks Off Across 5 Counties

United Way's "Diaper Dash" Kicks Off Across 5 Counties Throughout October

Susquehanna Valley United Way (SVUW) has once again launched its annual Diaper Dash. Throughout the month of October, their team will collect diapers and wipes so families have one less thing to worry about as the colder months approach.

Weis Markets, in partnership with the Kimberly Clark Corporation, has once again generously jump-started the drive with a kickoff donation of two pallets of Huggies® diapers, a $5,000 value, to help our region start strong.

"No parent should ever have to worry about whether they have enough diapers for their child," said Maria Rizzo, VP of Marketing & Advertising for Weis Markets. "Diapers are a basic need that keeps little ones healthy, comfortable and ready to thrive. We're proud to support Susquehanna Valley United Way's annual diaper drive, and we hope our donation makes a difference for local families while inspiring others in our community to support this important initiative."

All donations collected during the Diaper Dash will be distributed to local pantries in Columbia, Montour, Northumberland, Union, and Snyder Counties, directly benefiting area families. Please contribute by October 31 to make an impact this holiday season.

"Once again, we are seeing an increased need for basic supplies from our neighbors in all five counties and beyond," said Mark Stankiewicz, SVUW President & CEO. "We are excited to be able to collect diapers and wipes for local families in need to make sure they have one less thing to stress about as temperatures begin to drop and we see an uptick in requests for other resources. We couldn't do it without the support of Weis Markets and our wonderful community partners – and we thank them for their continued assistance."

SUN Tech Secures $100,000 for Workforce Development Initiative

In partnership with Lewisburg, Selinsgrove, Midd-West, Mifflinburg, and Shikellamy School Districts

SUN Area Technical Institute (SUN ATI), an academic institution serving Snyder, Union, and Northumberland counties in Pennsylvania, has secured $100,000 through the Appalachian Regional Commission's (ARC) Partnerships for Opportunity and Workforce and Economic Revitalization (POWER) Initiative to advance a comprehensive workforce development project.

POWER provides federal grant support to projects that expand economic opportunities in Appalachian communities by creating high-quality jobs, strengthening regional industries, attracting private investment, and enhancing workforce training and services.

This funding was made possible with assistance from the PA Department of Community & Economic Development's ARC State Office, which supports the administration of ARC resources throughout Pennsylvania. SEDA Council of Governments (SEDA-COG), a community and economic development agency serving Central Pennsylvania, provided technical assistance to SUN ATI during the application process.

The project is among 47 across eight states selected to receive ARC POWER funding. SUN ATI and its partners—including the Lewisburg, Selinsgrove, Midd-West, Mifflinburg, and Shikellamy School Districts—will contribute an additional $100,000 in matching funds.

" We are incredibly grateful to receive the ARC Power Grant and for the investment it represents in the future of career and technical education at SUN Tech. This funding provides us with the flexibility to thoughtfully evaluate and strengthen our program offerings while ensuring they remain aligned with the evolving workforce needs of our region. We sincerely thank ARC for recognizing the importance of workforce development," said Kristy Etzler, Administrative Director at SUN ATI.

With this investment, SUN ATI will conduct a comprehensive feasibility study to assess its Career and Technical Education programs and facility capacity in relation to regional labor market demands. The study will examine workforce needs, engage employers and workforce partners, and develop a clear, actionable plan to strengthen training pathways in advanced manufacturing, energy technology, and industrial maintenance.

"Through this POWER investment, SUN Area Technical Institute can take a data-driven look at how its programs, facilities, and partnerships can best meet the workforce needs of our region," said SEDA-COG's Grants Coordinator, Alayna Hemphill. "By aligning career and technical education with opportunities in advanced manufacturing, energy technology, and industrial maintenance, this feasibility study will help create clearer pathways for students, support local employers, and strengthen the long-term economic vitality of Central Pennsylvania."

Selinsgrove Market Street Festival Was A Crowd Pleaser!

By Kay Poeth

The 2026 Annual Selinsgrove Market Street Festival was a crowd pleaser! Families enjoyed the shopping, live entertainment, and of course the food court! (Photo by David Musser)

The Selinsgrove Market Street Festival featured everything from handmade jewelry, paintings, homemade soaps, crafts, local honey, maple syrup, and plenty of food; so, there was something for everyone!

The Selinsgrove Area Chamber of Commerce showcased their new 2027 Selinsgrove Memories calendars and note cards during Market Street Festival.

Once again, the 2026 Annual Selinsgrove Market Street Festival was a crowd pleaser! Families enjoyed the shopping, live entertainment, and of course the food court!It was a celebration of small-town charm at its best… until Mother Nature stepped in with a steady rain throughout the afternoon.However, many shoppers donned their rain apparel and opened umbrellas and ignored the rain.

The Selinsgrove Marching Band kicked off the festival with their exuberant performance. The streets were lined with craft, artisan, and food vendors; with the aroma of tasty food fare beckoning hungry attendees. Community and church organizations, civic and political booths, local small businesses and crafters, Selinsgrove teams and clubs, and SUEntrepreneurs filled the spots. People clustered together chatting with friends while others strolled along stopping to browse at the various booths and sampling the diverse variety of food offerings from pierogis to crepes.

"In spite of the mid-afternoon rain, the Market Street Festival was a true success, again this year. A number of the 172 vendors sold out by 1:30pm and many festivals attendees were especially disappointed that they couldn't get their chicken kabobs. The Selinsgrove Moose sold 748 funnel cakes out of the 800 they had to sell," exclaimed Carol Handlan, President of Selinsgrove Projects.

Debbie Bilger gravitated to Rough Collie Boutiqueas well as several other dog vendors along the route.Bonjour! The Selinsgrove High School French Club offered an array of tasty treats including macarons, brownies, crepes, cuillere, eau, and tee shirts.The Cornerstone United Pentecostal Church offered empanadas, sno cones, and tasty treats.

Heavenly Scent Soaps displayed goat milk soaps with an array of fragrances such as lavender chamomile, coconut, Waikiki beach, and black amber musk and other beauty products. Several booths had beeswax candles and other products in addition to fresh honey.

The Selinsgrove AreaChamber of Commerce showcased their new 2027 Selinsgrove Memories calendars, note cards, andother items.Jenna Miller, featured artist for SCL's Booked for the Evening, displayed her photography. She specializes in travel, plant macro, and animal photography.

Ladies flocked to the Pleasant Valley Greenhouse & Gifts display, trying on sweaters and vests. Several booths featured fall floral arrangements while others displayed an array of spooktacular delights.

Crocheted critters were very popular again this year with several crafters showcasing their creations. Amanda Eisenhauer explained how she got "hooked" on making washcloths, scrubbies, and crocheted animals.

Justin Strawser was selling his book of poetry, "Those Who Wait" while Janelle Remphrey featured her illustrations of paintings and prints.

Both the Selinsgrove VFW and DAV (Disabled American Veterans) set up informational booths. The Gideons were handing out Bibles.

Ashburn's Animals had a petting zoo for people of all ages to give patsand snacks to the animals they brought. Despite the afternoon rain several children were enthralled with various critters-goats, sheep, alpacasand even a giant tortoise.

The entertainment continued all day. In addition to the SAHS Marching Band, Gracie &Julia, Selinsgrove Dance Studio, Rick and Rich, Burns Tae Kwan Do, Bonnie &Mason, and Becky Blue Band performed throughout the festival.

"I thought that they had a nice eclectic mix of vendors, good prices and of course delicious food. I planned on being there early and was there until about 11 o'clock. Did a couple laps around and enjoyed the event! The entertainment was also good. Again, a nice mix that would be appealing to most everyone," stated David Musser.

Then he added, "This particular event is very good for bringing in old friends from out of the area. I know there were several class reunions and other meetings scheduled for the evening, knowing that more people from the area respond well to this event."

The weekly Farmer's Market in the Commons extended their hours to ensure that those visiting the festival had the opportunity to check out their offerings. The Friends ofRudy Gelnett Library had their raffle items on display inside the library by afternoon with the drawing at the conclusion of the festival.

Many thanks to this year's co-chairs: Carol Handlan, Krista Summers and Jelena Czponis and the many volunteers from Susquehanna University, Selinsgrove Area High School, and the community for their contributions to ensuring its success.

Hosted by Selinsgrove Projects, Inc., the Selinsgrove Market Street Festival featured everything from handmade jewelry, paintings, homemade soaps, crafts, local honey, maple syrup, a petting zoo and plenty of food; so, there was something for everyone! What a wonderful way to welcome autumn, showcase area organizations and small businesses, and celebrate the magic of small-town America!

Snyder County has declared all polling places to be accessible to voters with the full range of disabilities. For individuals with disabilities, Snyder County offers the ExpressVote, a voter assist terminal ballot-marking equipment (available at every polling place) that allows voters with disabilities and other special needs to mark a ballot privately and independently when using an optical scan voting system. The technology also provides assistance to voters who need help to better understand written instructions. For directions and maps to polling place locations, please visit the website www.snydercounty.org and follow the links under Elections/Voter Registration. If you are assigned to a polling place which you believe to be inaccessible, contact the Snyder County Board of Elections Office at (570)837-4286 on how to receive an alternative ballot.
