

T& D Cats of the World 35th Season Celebration on July 26-27

By Kay Poeth

T&D Cats of the World is celebrating their 35th Season of Howling, Growling, and Roaring during the weekend of July 26-27 from noon- 6 pm. No admissions after 5 pm. Cash only admission; $15 for ages 13 and older, $10 for ages 3-12, ages 2 and under are free.

Located at 363 Mountain Road in Penns Creek, the festivities include a free 35th Commemorative T&D magnet for the first 35 families, one per family both days. There will be Animal-themed games from noon- 4 pm for ages 3-12. There will also be a Scavenger Hunt for teens and adults. On Saturday, the featured food truck is CY Smoked by Southern BBQ. Enjoy live entertainment by My Father's Son, Peter Codisposti. On Sunday, the Rusty Rail Food Truck will be on hand. If you would like, bring a gift for the animals. Visit: <https://www.amazon.com/hz/wishlist/ls/2NBK5B785NTX>.

T&D's Cats offers visitors an opportunity to see big cats and other wild animals at a safe distance and learn about the various rescued creatures at the sanctuary. T&D Cats of the World is situated on the family's 35-acre property. Its tree lined paths provide forested areas for many of the animals in the sanctuary. There are only 4 rules when visiting the refuge: no running, no sticks, no stones, no noise. The safety and well-being of the animals is paramount.

Terry Mattive, a retired state police officer, had a dream to create a sanctuary for neglected and abused wildlife. It began with housing a cougar and a bobcat. Then the calls continued. Founded in 1990, the family opened the animal sanctuary to the public. The name is derived from Terry Mattive and his late wife Donna.

Both Jennifer Mattive and her brother, T.J. made the decision to continue working at the wildlife refuge operation after graduating from Penn State. Jennifer earned a degree in Wildlife and Fisheries Science while T.J. obtained a Biology degree. The siblings divide their duties. Jennifer oversees the gift shop, summer tours, and volunteer schedules as well as caring for the smaller mammals. T.J. concentrates on caring for the large cats, primates, and bears, and tending to the enclosures and expansive grounds.

For the Mattive family, T&D Cats of the World is more than a job. It is a passion. A way of life. A calling to care for the neglected, abused, and abandoned animals and to give them a permanent home.

Nearly 300 abused, mistreated, or unwanted animals call T&D's home, including nearly 30 felines (lions, tigers, cougars, bobcats, and servals). T&D also houses other animals including bears, fox, deer, coyotes, wolves, raccoons, primates, and birds. The animals have a home for life. T&D's does not buy, trade, or sell wildlife.

According to the Mattives, "T&D's strives to provide large enclosures for the animals in our care. You will find tigers cooling off in the pond within their two-acre exercise area, lions lounging in an acre exhibit, and bears wandering about their acre enclosure. Catch a glimpse of the wolves in their acre enclosure or the coyotes playing 'King of the Hill' in their 1/2-acre enclosure. We continue to provide larger and new enclosures for the animals when funds allow. Donations accepted to help defray the cost of materials. Besides providing room to run, T&D's also believes in enriching the animals' lives. As you walk around, you may see balls, tires, ropes, and other items provided for the animals' enjoyment."

The carnivores eat over 10,000 pounds of meat each and every month! This is equivalent to 10-12 cows! Each lion and each tiger needs 20-40 pounds (and sometimes up to 100 pounds) of meat every day. Farmers donate cows, calves, or horses that have died from natural deaths. Road-killed deer are donated by the PA Game Commission. The carcass diet is more natural, nutritional, and provides enrichment for the animals. However, chicken is also purchased for the animals as needed.

T&D's is fully licensed by the state and federal governments to house and exhibit wildlife. Professional animal care is provided by the Mattive family and dedicated veterinarians at the onsite medical building.

T&D's is not funded by the government. The care of the animals is made possible in part by private contributions. 100% donations goes directly to animal care! T&D's has no paid employees, just volunteers. In fact, even the owners do not receive salaries. The public can help by making a donation, Sponsoring An Animal, donating materials, volunteering their time or services.

T&D's Cats of the World is open 76 days a year from May-September. Self-guided tours are available on Saturdays and Sundays from 10 am- 6 pm. No admittance after 5 pm. In June, July, and August guided tours are offered on Wednesdays, Thursdays, and Fridays at 10 am or 2 pm. Closed Monday and Tuesday.

Visitors can enjoy this unique opportunity to observe these creatures while supporting making a difference in the welfare of these animals. Cash admission only; $15 for ages 13 and older; $10 for ages 3-12 and free for children 2 and younger. There is also a small gift shop on the grounds.

Mill Hall; PA – The 410 Sprint Cars made this first of two appearances this season at the Clinton County Speedway in front of a full crowd. Billy Dietrich of Aspers, PA made the crowd cheer in an exciting victory, presented by the Clinton County Tourism Bureau and the Clinton County Chamber of Commerce, over Ryan Smith of Fleetwood, PA and Lucas Wolfe of Mechanicsburg, PA. Jeffrey Weaver of Lock Haven won the Mason Dixon 270 Micro Sprint Feature event and Matt Weaver of Madisonburg won the 4-Cylinder feature.

Fast time of the night was set by Brock Zearfoss of Jonestown, PA with a time of 11.978 seconds. The “Jonestown Jet” drew the pole position and started alongside of Dietrich. Zearfoss took the early lead over Dietrich, Lucas Wolfe, Smith, and Jordan Givler of Enola. On lap number four, Smith passed Wolfe, as Deitrich was pressuring Zearfoss. On lap number eight Dietrich took the lead, and Smith took the second position away from Zearfoss on lap number 11.

As the top five approached the completion of lap number 20, the running order remained the same for the top five, but lapped traffic made things interesting. At times Dietrich was held up by lapped traffic allowing Smith to close in and the next lap he could clear a lapped car putting a marker between him and Smith.

The racing continued to be intense as the leaders worked their way through the lapped traffic. On lap number 30 Dietrich maintained the lead by a slim margin over Smith. With two laps remaining, Smith and Wolfe closed in as the fifth-place car of Jordan Givler pulled in with a mechanical issue. Dietrich held on to claim the $7,500 pay day over Smith and Wolfe. Zearfoss finished fourth and Logan Rumsey completed the top five.

Other feature winners were Jeff Weaver in the 270 Micros and Matt Weaver in the 4-Cylinders.

25 Appalachian Mountains Super Late Model Speedweek presented by Selinsgrove Ford signed in for the $6,000 to win feature presented by Donnie’s Automotive. “I couldn’t stay down on the bottom the first part of the race.” Satterlee said to Steve Inch in High Caliber Cranes Victory Lane. “Jones got off the bottom really well. Luckily as the race went on my tires got underneath me. I was able to get a better balance once we got some clean track.”

27 Keller Auto Body PASS 305 sprint cars signed in for the night’s action. Ken Duke, Jr did not take long to get to the front and made it three wide in turn one to take the lead and get out to a big lead to start the 20-lap main event. “The car was perfect.” Duke said in High Caliber Cranes Victory Lane. “Made some changes and it worked better than I imagined, especially with the way the track.

26 Limited Late Models signed in for the third feature of the night. The question coming in was could anyone knock off Mifflintown’s Lane Snook. “I didn’t even picture us being here tonight.” Fulkroad said in High Caliber Cranes Victory Lane. “We’ve been struggling with cars this year. I got to apologize to Selinsgrove,PA- Mother nature finally showed mercy to finish up Appalachian Mountains Super Late Model Speedweek presented by Selinsgrove Ford almost one month to the day. The month-long wait was worth it as Indiana, PA’s Gregg Satterlee wins his third feature of Speedweek and clenches his third straight Appalachian Mountains Super Late Model Speedweek presented by Selinsgrove Ford title. Keller’s Auto Body PA Sprint Series 305’s were back in action at Selinsgrove. Selinsgrove’s own Ken Duke Jr. wired the field for his 8th career 305 win at the Snyder County oval. Port Royal’s Jared Fulkroad broke Lane Snook’s Selinsgrove winning Dalton Bigler. I had a head of steam and made some contact with him. But to be up here is an amazing feeling.”

Final feature of the night was the debut of the Superior Home Street Stocks. Steve Kent parked it in the High Caliber Cranes Victory Lane for his first ever feature at the track.

Clinton County Ran the Big Sprint Car Race, Selinsgrove Wrapped up the Late Model Speedweek

A nice field of 32 sprint car driver showed up on Friday night at Clinton County Speedway for the $7,500 top prize on the line. There were twenty-six 410's, three 360's and three 305 drivers in action. None of the 305 drivers were able to qualify, with one 360-sprint driver making the 35-lap feature field. Two sets of time trials were needed to set the field for the heat races. Brock Zearfoss, who had overall fast time at 11.978 and Australian driver, Alex Attard, was fastest in the second group with a time of 12.567. Zearfoss, Billy Dietrich, Lucas Wolfe and Garrett Bard won the four heat races, with Cameron Smith winning the B-main. Garrett Bard, who swept the two 410 special shows in the 2024 season, just did not have it in the feature this time placing fifteenth in the final run down. Billy Dietrich, who for years has supported the 410 shows at Clinton County, scored the feature win over Ryan Smith in the #6 (not the Kreitz #69 he drives at other tracks). Lucas Wolfe was third, Zearfoss and then Logan Rumsey in the top five. Hard Charger went to Derek Hauck, who started the feature in twenty-first and placed seventh in the final finish. Cameron Smith started nineteenth and placed tenth in the final rundown, showing that there was a lot of passing during the 35-lap feature. Jordan Givler, when he was interviewed during the pill draw for the feature, was pushing for Clinton County to be a part of the annual sprint Speedweek quoting Gilver, "We need a few short tracks like Clinton in the mix for one of the ten races". Time will tell if that is going to happen for the 2026 season. Mark Smith has been pushing the same thing noting the call for more shorter tracks, like Clinton, to be placed on the docket. Tyler Reeser who was on top of his game with the 305-sprint years ago and then had the ride in the Sorokach #35, but he walked away from the sport, took a ride in the back-up Jones race #12 for the Clinton race. Reeser was twenty-first in the finishing order. Austin Bishop is now the driver of the #35 and was eleventh in the feature. Lucas Wolfe, who had not raced there in a few years, made the best of it with a third-place finish in the feature. The next 410-sprint is set for Saturday August 9th with the running of the Phil Walter Classic.

Also on Friday, at Selinsgrove Speedway, there was the rescheduled Appalachian Speedweek final for the super late models. The point title came down to Gregg Satterlee and Trevor Feathers, with Feathers needing Satterlee to have some bad luck for him to be able to overtake Gregg for the points. That did not happen with Satterlee going out and winning the feature event and picking up $6,000. In fact, Gregg did not stop there! He went out and won the Frank Sagi Tribute race at Hagerstown on Saturday picking up $5,000, and then on Sunday to win the Jimmy Spence Memorial at Winchester Speedway and another $6,091 for bonus money. It was a $21,000 weekend. Getting back to Selinsgrove, again Shaun Jones of Shermansdale PA was the bridesmaid and not the bride. He led for 14 laps in the feature but settled for second place at the end of the 35-lap feature. He was also second to Rick Eckert in a race back in May of this year. Shaun led the most laps that night also. Hayes Mattern, who is always around the top five, was third in the feature, with Eckert and Kyle Lee in the top five. Trevor Feathers, Dylan and then Jim Yoder, Dan Stone and Jeff Rine who was the tracks hard charger coming from 17th to that 10th place finish. The final point total for the top five looked like this: Satterlee 4,265, Trevor Feathers 4,055, Bryan Bernheisel 3,993, Dan Stone 3,919 and Kyle Lee 3,913. For Satterlee, it was his third overall Speedweek title having won it last year and in the 2013 season. He also now has twelve feature wins in the mini-series which leads all drivers.

Sprint driver Briggs Danner was getting a second chance to drive the Superko #31 usually driven by Jim Bernheisel. Briggs did not make out has good has his fourth-place finish at Bridgeport back in June. Danner could only muster a 16th place finish. For the series Satterlee had three wins with others coming at Port Royal, Bridgeport and Selinsgrove Mason Zeigler drove in only two events and won them both at Path Valley and Bedford. Four different drivers set fast times with Satterlee doing it twice along with Trevor Feathers, Mason Zeigler and Justin Weaver. There were fourteen different heat race winners, with Rick Eckert and Feathers each winning two single wins for the other twelve. Only five of the original eight scheduled races were run with Clinton County, Hagerstown and Lincoln all getting rained out.

Hagerstown Speedway had the Frank Sagi Tribute race last Saturday with a top field of 37 super late model drivers on hand. After the win by Satterlee, came Matt Cosner, Trevor Feathers, Rick Eckert and Kyle Hardy. Following them were Andrew Yoder, Kyle Lee, Bryan Bernheisel, Kenny Moreland and Justin Weaver. Alan Sagi puts this deal together each year and it always draws a big field of racers and large crowds of spectators. Three drivers were also honored, Booper Bare, Dave Wilt and car owner Barry Klinedinst during the 8th annual running of this event. Bare was the 1987 Rookie of the year at Hagerstown and placed second in points to Jeff Robinson that year. He also picked up four feature wins. Bare raced at 75 different speedways in his career, and one of his highlights was winning a Winter Nationals race at East Bay during the 1997 season. Barry Klinedinst was a car owner for close to 50-years and had drivers like Gary Snellbaker, Bobby Goodling, Steve Smith (yes, the sprint car driver) Smith ran several of the NDRA series back in the late 70's and early 80's. Jeff Leiphart and most recent Jason Covert who is still driving the car today. The car is now owned by Barry's son Brian. Dave Wilt was a limited late model driving force picking up track titles at Hagerstown in 1978 and 1983; he also owns titles at Winchester Speedway. He last raced in the 1985 season.

What looked like a sure win coming for Justin Whittall in the 410-sprint feature with a five second lead and one lap to go, but a right rear flat tire ended his night on the back stretch with the car facing the fence. Troy Wagaman went on to pick up the win after his normal track Lincoln Speedway rained out. Troy and his Heffner racing team made it to Port where he picked up his first ever Port Royal 410-sprint car feature win over Brock Zearfoss, Mark Smith. In the Limited Late Model feature, Lane Snook went past Jaxton Garman with two laps to go and scored his eleventh overall feature win of the season. Lane now has two wins at Port to go along with wins at Selinsgrove three, Bedford two, BAPS three and one at Dog Hollow.

In Loving Memory of Shirley Maurer

September 11, 1928 – July 4, 2025

It is with deep sadness that we announce the peaceful passing of Shirley Romayne Maurer of Selinsgrove on July 4, 2025, at the age of 96.

Shirley was born on September 11, 1928 in Sunbury, PA. She was the eldest daughter of Francis and Laura (Reichenbach) Campbell. As the eldest of the four Campbell daughters, she learned early how to care for her sisters and developed a nurturing spirit that would define her life. She also had a half-sister and half-brother who were born when Shirley was an adult.

After graduating from Sunbury High School in 1946, Shirley worked at Big Boy Auto. She married the love of her life, Robert D. Maurer, on February 1, 1947. Their loving marriage spanned 63 years, until Bob's passing in 2010.

Shirley and Bob began their life together in Ohio before moving to Harrisburg, PA and eventually settling in Belleville, PA, where they raised their two sons. In 1989, they moved to Selinsgrove, where Shirley would live for the remainder of her life. The move brought them closer to their children, grandchildren, and to Shirley's sisters and many nieces and nephews.

A devoted homemaker during her sons' younger years, Shirley later worked at Kish Bank, where she worked for many years before retiring.

Together, Shirley and Bob shared a love of adventure, spending many joyful years traveling and camping across the country. They especially cherished winters in sunny Florida. In her later years, Shirley enjoyed the quiet pleasure of knitting and cross-stitching and treasured time spent with her grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

A woman of deep faith, Shirley loved the Lord and found joy in the blessings of family and fellowship. She is survived by her son Jeffrey Maurer of Selinsgrove. She was preceded in death by her husband Bob (2010), her son Thomas Maurer (2020) and daughter-in-law Lynn Maurer (2006).

Shirley's legacy lives on through her cherished grandchildren:

- Todd Maurer, son of Jeffrey, of Selinsgrove;
- Andrew Maurer, son of Tom, and his wife Christine, of Broad Run, Virginia, and their six children;
- Daniel Maurer, also son of Tom, and his wife Linde, of Nicholson, Pennsylvania, and their two daughters.

She also leaves behind many beloved nieces, nephews, cousins, and dear friends - each of whom held a special place in her heart.

Shirley will be remembered for her gentle spirit, quiet strength, and steadfast devotion to her family. Her warmth, kindness, and faith-filled life touched many, and her legacy of love will continue to live on in the hearts of those she leaves behind.

A funeral service will be held on Saturday, July 19, at 11 A.M. at Faith United Methodist Church, 203 Arch Street, Sunbury with Rev. Ron Trout officiating. Interment immediately following at Pomfret Manor Cemetery. Friends may call from 10 A.M. at the Faith UMC.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to Faith United Methodist Church.

Arrangements by the V. L. Seebold Funeral Home, 601 N. High Street, Selinsgrove.

Helen was formerly employed at the Dutch Pantry, Selinsgrove School District, and Inch's Automotive. She was a member of Sharon Lutheran Church, Selinsgrove.

Helen loved animals. Her greatest joy was spending time with her family, especially her grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

She is survived by her son Jerry A. Inch, four grandchildren Jessica, Stephanie, Michael, and Haley, four great-grandchildren Dylan, Blake, Dahnavan, and Derek,

Linda P. Dworsky, 79, of Selinsgrove, PA

Born in Buffalo, New York, on October 17, 1945, Linda lived a life marked by warmth, wit, playful teasing, and devotion to those she loved. She built a fulfilling career at Syracuse University, where she worked for over 25 years, forming lasting friendships and touching the lives of many colleagues.

Linda had a sharp mind and a joyful spirit. She found delight in the challenge of the New York Times crossword—a love she paired with her passion for golf, both playing and watching. She also enjoyed lively card games, penny slots, delicious home-cooked meals, and time spent with family around the table.

She leaves behind her loving husband, William; her three children, Brian Dworsky (Jessica), Aaron Dworsky (Amanda), and Jessica Wallish (Donald); her beloved grandchildren, Cooper, Nolan, Emily, Harrison, and Joshua; her sisters, nieces and nephews, and a host of other relatives and friends. Her family meant everything to her, and her smile, strength, and laughter will be remembered always.

A small, private celebration of Linda's life will be held with close family and friends. In lieu of flowers, the family invites you to honor her by doing something she would've loved: play a round of golf, cook a favorite meal, play a card game, or donate to the Holocaust Museum in DC, or Congregation Beth El, 249 Arch Street, Sunbury PA 17801.

Arch Manning will not be the best QB in college football this year, not even the best in his own conference. And for Penn State football it's now or never for James Franklin. Just a couple of teasers as we approach August.

We have passed the halfway point of the Major League season as the All-Star break is over. I actually enjoyed this year's homerun derby because my new favorite player Cal Raleigh squared off against Pirate Oneil Cruz in the semis. The Big Dumper won the derby over Junior Caminero who has the sweetest swing of any right-handed batter like Ken Griffey Jr had from the left side.

There is no clear-cut favorite team to win the World Series this year. Injuries to the Dodgers, Mets, Yankees and Astros have leveled the playing field for other teams to rise up in the standings. We had an Indy/OKC NBA final, why not a Tigers/Cubs Fall Classic?

George Springer has carried Toronto past the slumping Yanks, not sure the Blue Jays can stay hot. Boston sprinted to the All-Star break but now play the Cubs, Phils, Dodgers, Twins and Astros in a brutal 15 game stretch. The Padres haven't played well against the teams they will face in the playoffs.

The Yanks will have to make some trades to advance into October. Seattle has Raleigh and not much else. The Mets were swept by the Pirates and their starting pitching is in shambles. The Mets main rival in Philly has had stellar starting pitching and with a healthy Harper the offense will improve. They will have to add an arm or two to the bullpen.

The Dodgers will be in the mix until the end because they are the Dodgers and Ohtani will ramp up his innings on the bump. Tampa Bay has been led by Caminero and Jonathan Aranda but their July/August schedule is very road-heavy. I'm anxious to see what The Miz will do for the rest of the year as the Brewers have a lot of good players but no great ones.

The Astros are the team everyone hates but even with injuries will not go away. Cam Smith has stepped up sooner than expected and the 'Zombie Astros' continue to plug and play. The Cubs have the sticks and will add an arm to boost their rotation. PCA, Suzuki and Tucker will lead Chicago to more wins than they had in their World Series season.

That brings me to the team that will win it all in October. The Detroit Tigers have the best starting pitcher in Tarik Skubal and impressive depth across the entire roster. Javier Baez is back to his old self and Riley Greene has matured into one of the game's top power hitters. Detroit has a deep well of prospects and they can add significant help at the trade deadline.

Speaking of prospects, how about a little ice-hockey talk to cool you off during these dog days of summer. Penn State hockey recruit Gavin Mckenna is projected as next year's first pick in the NHL draft. Pierce Mbuyi and Jackson Smith are also incoming freshmen and both of them are also projected as first round picks in next year's draft.

All three are coming from the CHL, the junior hockey league in Canada. The CHL recently eliminated the NCAA middle step to get to the NHL. Penn State is now a heavy favorite to make it to the Frozen Four next year and win it all. This from a program that just started playing Div 1 hockey thirteen years ago, about the same time James Franklin came to Happy Valley.

As I mentioned last week, sports is money and Terry Pegula gets all the credit for creating Hockey Valley in the winter. They play their home games at the state of art Pegula Ice Arena. Pegula owns the Buffalo Sabres and Bills and is worth north of $7B. The Penn State grad's daughter Jessica is currently ranked #3 in the world in women's tennis.

Speaking of tennis, there is a wide gap between the #2 and #3 ranked tennis player on the men's side. #1 Jan-nik Sinner just beat #2 Carlos Alcatraz at Wimbledon. These two have won the last seven Grand Slam events much like Djokovic and Nadal before them. It's going to be fun watching these two go against each other for the next decade. I cannot watch an entire tennis tournament but thoroughly enjoy watching these 1 vs 2 in the final of a Grand Slam.

Sports continue to be the one constant in life we can turn to for entertainment, excitement and true facts. There's a nobleness for all involved in sports Whether it's a dad or mom giving hours of service often to kids that aren't even their own. College coaches from Div 3 to the highest level changing lives. Pro athletes are not only obsessed and committed to winning and changing their lives but feeding us.

Through it all the one fundamental piece of this country I trust and dive into is sports. It rarely lets me down. Every week I discover an athlete or team I never noticed before and suddenly I find myself rooting for them. In the world of sports, class, politics and race don't vanish but converge into a shared desire. One goal, one team, one win.

In a world that feels a bit more fragmented than ever, sports doesn't. It's still rock solid and getting better. When the lights go on and the games begin, one of the few things I'm rarely disappointed in with America today is sports.

Some of those that talk about sports often disappoint. Stephen A Smith is more entertainer than informant. The fact he is thinking of running for president is absurd. Someone must be watching him as he is the highest paid voice on ESPN. His schtick lacks any knowledge except for taking the opposing view for argument's sake.

His 'First Take' show is infinitely better when Steve is not on the show. Much like 'Get Up' is when Mike Greenberg is not there.

On the other hand, Charles Barkley is always refreshing and speaks his mind no matter the subject. When Barkley talks you listen and learn. He could be a jerk early on in his career but has matured through the years. Barkley does a lot of good deeds behind the scenes and wants no publicity for these.

NFL execs and scouts have ranked each position in football. Jayden Daniels (5) and Justin Herbert (7) higher than #9 Jalen Hurts? Don't believe the rumors of Nick Saban returning to the sidelines. Is Lebron going to be a Laker this year? Keep those suggestions and questions coming at theviewfromhear74@gmail.com and on X ... @theviewfromhear

New Berlin Day 2025 Is Canceled

By Kay Poeth

New Berlin Day has been a central Pennsylvania tradition for more than 50 years. Each year area residents flock to the annual New Berlin Day festivities in search of crafts, antiques, entertainment and delicious food on the fourth Saturday of August. However, this year New Berlin Day has been canceled.

Citing construction work being performed on the Walnut Street Bridge in New Berlin, it would be impossible to host this popular event. There would be nowhere to redirect traffic through the town. The Activities Committee reluctantly decided to postpone the event due to concerns for safety, as well as the disruption to the traditional character of the day.

"It is unfortunate timing, coming just as we were planning to re-focus the occasion, adding new historical activities and moving more of the events to the center of town," noted Kelly Roush, a member of the New Berlin Activities Committee which runs the event.

The New Berlin Activities Committee promises that next year's event will return with new historical programming in addition to all the antique and craft vendors, strolling musicians, and food stands. So, mark your calendars for the 53rd New Berlin Day scheduled for August 22, 2026!

The 96th Pennsylvania FFA State Convention

Written by Midd-West FFA Reporter, Danika Barger

Maura Aurand placed 2nd in the talent competition and was chosen to perform in the last general session for more than 2000 FFA members, advisors, and guests.

The 96th Pennsylvania FFA State Convention was held June 10-12, 2025 at Penn State. Midd-West FFA traveled to a convention filled with excitement. This was one of the larger groups of students we've taken in years. We had students ranging from 8th-12th grade competing.

Midd-West FFA had four students qualify as participants, finalists, and winners in the Proficiency Award competition. These awards are given to members who have excelled in their SAE (Supervised Agricultural Experience). In the area of Dairy Production Placement, Madyson Reich was recognized as a finalist. In the area of Nursery Operations Placement, Veronica Hummel was recognized as the state winner! Her application will go on to compete at nationals. In the area of Swine Production Entrepreneurship, Gracie Shaffer was recognized as a finalist. In the area of Veterinary Science, Midd-West FFA members took the top two places with Gracie Shaffer winning the area and Kayla Rudy recognized as a finalist!

The Floriculture team, consisting of Veronica Hummel, Abigail Spigelmeyer, Janessa Hummel, and Harmony Penepacker, finally accomplished their goal by winning 1st place as a team. Veronica was also the 1st place individual in the contest out of 131 other competitors. In a surprise victory, the Horse Evaluation team consisting of Gracie Shaffer, Kayla Rudy, Maliya Krebs, and Cali Shaffer won 1st place team. Gracie placed 1st as an individual and Kayla 3rd, out of 82 competitors. Both teams will move on to the national competition at National FFA Convention in October.

Madyson Reich represented Midd-West as a state officer candidate. "I was honored to represent the Midd-West FFA Chapter as a Pennsylvania FFA State Officer Candidate. Running for state office was an excellent experience. Although I didn't acquire a spot on the team, I learned many valuable skills, made numerous friendships, and created lasting connections as I went through the process."

Maura Aurand placed 2nd in the talent competition and was chosen to perform in the last general session for more than 2000 FFA members, advisors, and guests.

Caitryn Gabel, a first-time member, expressed her experience as, "Attending the state convention was a fantastic opportunity to have fun and meet new people. Overall, my first experience at the convention was amazing."

After convention Mrs. Gunnell recounted the experience, "The wins are so sweet! I love seeing our students recognized for their hard work. But I also just feel so grateful to have taken a great group of students and to provide this experience for them. So many of them have worked so hard and I'm proud of them all no matter the result. It just makes everything we do worth it."

Mr. Erb's comment was much shorter when he was asked about the Floral team, Horse judging team and Maura's live performance when he responded "Wow, Wow, and Wow"! All in all, the members and advisors had an amazing time and are excited for nationals on the fall.

USCBA Celebration of Law Day Art & Essay Winners

By Kay Poeth

Congratulations to the all of the winners of the USCBA Law Day Essay and Art Contests in Union County and Snyder County pictured with President Judge Lori R. Hackenberg and Judge Michael Piecuch.

The Union-Snyder County Bar Association (USCBA), in partnership with the judges of the 17th Judicial District, sponsored an art and essay contest in honor of Law Day. Celebrated at the beginning of May each year, “Law Day provides an opportunity to reflect on how the legal process protects our liberties, strives to achieve justice, and contributes to the freedoms that all Americans enjoy.”

On May 5, 2025, family and teachers gathered to celebrate the winners of the Union-Snyder County Bar Association’s Law Day Art and Essay contest winners. The award presentation was held in Courtroom of the Union County Courthouse in Lewisburg. The theme of this year’s contest was The Constitution’s Promise: Out of Many, One, an essential part of being an American citizen under our Constitution.

The Honorable Lori Hackenberg, President Judge of the Court of Common Pleas of the 17th Judicial District, gave the Opening Remarks.

On behalf of the Union-Snyder County Bar Association, Eric A. Williams, Esq. and Bar Association President, gave remarks that commended passing values from one generation to the next. “We, the People can have our voices heard through Art and Essays.”

Mary Beth Clark, Esq., who chaired the Law Day Committee, said the Lewisburg Art Council Judges were very impressed by the students’ creative work and the Committee members found the essays were thoughtful and insightful as to how our young people think. “This contest gives us hope for the future of our country and our democracy.”

The award-winning artwork was on display in the Courtroom. The first-place essay winners read their pieces to the audience. Barbara Baker, Sandy Davis, and Valerie Moyer, representatives of the Lewisburg Arts Council judged the art and members of the Bar Association’s Law Day Committee judged the essays. Cash prizes were awarded. The winners were recognized and presented awards by Judge Michael Piecuch and Mary Beth Clark, Esq. The submissions showed insight and understanding. Congratulations to all the winners!

In the Essay Contest, the Union County the first-place award was presented to Cecilia Cunado-James of Lewisburg High School under the guidance of Andrew Cook. 2nd-place honors were bestowed upon Ian Boney also of Lewisburg High School under the guidance of Andrew Cook. 3rd place was awarded to Micah Castillo of Lewisburg High School under the tutelage of Andrew Cook. Honorable Mention was awarded to Matthew Zawisky of Lewisburg High School.

“The phrase ‘out of many, one’ recognizes all who enjoy the liberties of American citizenship, however simultaneously holds unique significance for those regardless of status; the simple, unrefined nature of the inclusion of the individual amongst a community transcends the bounds of identity and fails to recognize borders, legality, color, orientation, gender, or affiliation, rather pursuing unification unconditionally. To the American people it is this essence of the phrase ‘out of many, one’ that signifies indiscriminate acceptance and enduring recognition regardless of the reality that may hinder individuals elsewhere,” concluded Cecilia Cunado-James in her essay.

In Snyder County, the first-place award in the Essay Category was awarded to Devon Mitchell of Selinsgrove Area High School under the guidance of Daniel Frake. Earning second place recognition was Quinn Stanford of Selinsgrove Area High School under the tutelage of Laurie Knitter. Third-place honors were awarded to Audrey Bucher of Selinsgrove Area High School under the guidance of Truly Walters-Zimmerman. Honorable Mention was awarded to Alexander Suruj.

In her essay, Devon Mitchell states, “The words ‘Out of many, One,’ or E Pluribus Unum in Latin, have been an integral part of American identity since the country’s earliest history. It is found on the Great Seal of the United States and has been a motto symbolizing unity through diversity for a very long time. It is not just a catchphrase; it is a vital aspect of what it means to be an American citizen under the Constitution. The United States was founded on the premise that individuals from many difference backgrounds, cultures, and religions could come together to form one, unifying nation. The idea is still part of the nation’s identity, its government, and citizen responsibilities. The phrase ‘Out of Many, One’ encapsulates the American democratic essence by promoting unity, the value or diversity, and the shared responsibility to preserve the Constitution.”

In the Essay Contest for the SUN Area Technical School/ Homeschooled category,first-place award was presented to Sean Dewar, a Homeschooled student, under the guidance of Cristin Dewar. Second place was presented to Allen Hockenbroch from SUN Area Tech under the guidance of Emmalee Williams. Third place honors were presented to Jack Kappen of SUN Area Tech under the tutelage of Kale Geiswite.

In his essay, Sean Dewar noted, “The true American dream is to live up to our nation’s motto E pluribus unum which means ‘Out of many, one’ The great thing about dreams is, despite how impossible they may seem, dreams are achieved every day. However, they are not easily reached. Our nation’s government is not going to return to E pluribus unum. At least, not unless we do it first. The first three words of our constitution read ‘We the people’. Our government’s rule book hangs on those three words, hangs on us. We the people, hold the ability to bring about change and bring back E pluribus unum.”

Dewar concluded by saying, “The question is, ‘how?’ Looking back one more time to the start of our nation gives us the answer. After the Revolution, we were 13 colonies, filled with people who were willing to set aside their differences, compromise, and find common ground on the ideals of our nation. This is how we got E pluribus unum, and this is how we can get it back. It is our choice to set aside our differences and stand Out of many, one. It is our choice to recognize the opinions of others take those into account and find compromises that satisfy both parties. It is our choice, to make change, to forgive, and work past disagreement. It won’t be easy, most will not choose this; however, the more of us that do make the choice, the more people will see it and make the choice themselves.”

The artwork was powerful with exceptional creativity. The artwork displayed a good use of symbolism. Congratulations to all the winners. In the Art Contest, the Union County winners all hailed from Lewisburg Area School District under the guidance of teacher Andrew Cook. First place winner was Jack Siegel, second-place honors were awarded to Leila Bronner, and third place was presented to Sara Mincemoyer and Phoebe Dresser. Honorable Mention was awarded to Payton Spigelmeyer.

In Snyder County, the first-place award in the Art Category was awarded to Evelyn Holler of Midd-West High School under the guidance of Ryan Van Horn.

The SUN Area Technical InstituteArt winners were under the guidance of teacher Emmalee Williams. Congratulations

July’s PQG Stitch of News

By Kay Poeth

Here are some local meetings to keep you in stitches during the month of July! Piecemakers Quilt Guild of Susquehanna Valley’s Stitch & Gab will meet at the Public Library for Union County on Monday, July 21 from 10 am to 3 pm, located at 255 Reitz Blvd. in Lewisburg. Members work on service or individual projects and offer quilting advice and help. New participants are welcomed.

The members of the Piecemakers Quilt Guild of Susquehanna Valley (PQG) continue to expand their skills and learn new techniques with special presenters and programs. During the month of June, guest speakers Peggy Dent and Cynthia Kishbaugh of Quilters in Bloom presented “Fabric Collage,” a design option that fuses fabric pieces onto foundation cloth.

Fabric collages are made from many light, medium, and dark pieces of cloth mindfully selected to create a picture. By carefully arranging these various shades, the designer can show a play of light and shadow on objects, much like a watercolor, oil, or pastel picture. Thread painting and other embellishment techniques can be added to make fabric collages more realistic. Fabric collage lends itself beautifully to abstract design as well.

Dent and Kishbaugh shared many examples of their work. There is no limitation to what an image can become a fabric collage.

The Piecemakers Quilt Guild (PQG) of Susquehanna Valley members will meet at 1:30 pm on Sunday, July 27 at the East Buffalo Township Building on Fairground Rd. in Lewisburg for their annual picnic. The regular meeting and program will resume on August 24 when members will share various quilting techniques. Join us for an opportunity to meet new quilting friends and learn more about quilting techniques.

Go Joe 28 Stache for Cash Features Stops in Snyder & Union Counties

By Kay Poeth

Joe Snedeker, popular WNEP meteorologist and local icon, is gearing up for his 28th annual Go Joe fundraising bike ride, benefiting the St. Joseph’s Center in Scranton. Go Joe 28 kicks off on Monday, July 21, at Marywood University for this annual 5-day charity bike ride. He will ride approximately 100 miles per day.

While last year was the Year of the Inflatables, this year’s theme is Stash for Cash so don a snazzy mustache for the occasion! According to WNEP, “News-watch 16’s Jack Culklin, along with his mustache, will follow Joe all week to bring you conditions and updates on our Pedaling Meteorologist!”

On Tuesday, Joe will be starting his day’s journey with an Early Bird morning crowd of well-wishers from 6-7 am at Borough Park in Riverside traveling through Danville, Northumberland, Sunbury, and Shamokin Dam.

He has a noon stop scheduled for Selinsgrove Commons. Area residents can greet Joe and present their donations. Don’t forget your real and fake mustaches! Have your camera and photos ready for selfie shots.

Joe Snedeker will also be visiting the Snyder County Courthouse on Tuesday, July 22. Joe is expected to arrive in Middleburg around 2 pm. There will be food trucks in the parking lot from 11:30am-3:30pm featuring Simply Bowls, Son of a Butcher, and Shake Your Buns & Do the Twist.

The Courthouse staff raised funds for Go Joe 28 by hosting a Pet Photo Contest in honor of All American Pet Photo Day on July 11 and National Pet Safety Day on July 15 with 51 entries.

Kate Reid will present the donation to Joe Snedeker after he pedals in. Other residents are invited to greet Joe and present their donations as well.

“We’re certainly happy to welcome Joe (Snedeker) during his annual fundraising trek across the WNEP viewing area. We wish him well and support his continued efforts to raise funds for such a worthy cause,” said Snyder County Commissioner Adam Ewig.

Afterwards, Go Joe 28 heads to Union County trekking through New Berlin Lewisburg, and Milton Lodge 171. He stops for the evening from 4:00- 6:30 pm at Montour-Delong Community Fair in Washingtonville.

Joe Snedeker’s cross-region journey will take him through parts of Central Pennsylvania before entering Schuylkill County on Friday, July 25, where supporters can cheer him on as he pedals through a series of local towns and landmarks. Joe concludes his journey on Friday, July 25, just as the St. Joseph’s Center Festival Telethon begins on WNEP-TV!

Saint Joseph’s Center is rooted in the core values of care, concern, compassion and commitment. Saint Joseph’s humbly serves people who are diagnosed with intellectual disability and those who seek pregnancy support, adoption assistance, outpatient therapy or medical day care services. The Center strives to provide individuals who have special needs the opportunity to develop their abilities and potential to the fullest extent possible. St. Joseph’s Center has been a recognized leader in providing quality care for individuals with intellectual and developmental disabilities.

Donation checks can be made payable to: St. Joseph’s Center, note on check “Go Joe 28” and mailed to 2010 Adams Avenue, Scranton, PA 18509.

Congratulations to SkillsUSA National Welding Fabrication Champions

By Kay Poeth

Congratulations to SkillsUSA National Welding Fabrication Competition Champions-Clayton Fegley, Tyler Martin, and Sam Laudenslager all from Snyder County and enrolled at Pennsylvania College of Technology!

A Snyder County team competed in the SkillsUSA National Welding Fabrication Competition in Atlanta Georgia on June 25, 2025. The team consisted of Tyler Martin, Sam Laudenslager, and Clayton Fegley- all from Snyder County. They are all alumni of SUN Area Technical School in New Berlin. They are enrolled at Pennsylvania College of Technology where they study Welding and Fabrication Engineering.

According to Clayton Fegley of McClure, “During the competition we were tasked with making a functional sandbox excavator in 6 hours. After it was all said and done, we walked away national champions, with a gold medal and various prizes!”

According to their website, “SkillsUSA is America’s proud champion of the skilled trades. Our mission is to empower students to become skilled professionals, career-ready leaders and responsible community members.”

The annual National Leadership and Skills Conference (NLSC), a showcase of career and technical education students, was held in Atlanta, Georgia on June 23-27, 2025. More than 19,019 attendees — including students, teachers and business partners participated in the weeklong event. It was a new record for SkillsUSA!

Students competed hands-on in 107 different trade, technical and leadership fields for national gold, silver, and bronze. Students worked against the clock and each other, proving their expertise in occupations such as electronics, computer-aided drafting, precision machining, medical assisting and culinary arts. Contests are conducted with the assistance of industry, trade associations and labor organizations, and test competencies are set by industry. The week culminated with an Awards Ceremony.

The event is held at the Georgia World Congress Center in Atlanta, and it covers over 1.79 million square feet of floor space, the equivalent of 31 football fields! The philosophy of the SkillsUSA Championships is to reward students for excellence, to involve industry in directly evaluating student performance and to keep classroom training relevant to employers’ needs.

The SkillsUSA Championships is the national culmination of a year-long process that begins in local SkillsUSA chapters across the country. Local winners advance to district or regional competitions, testing their skills against competitors from other schools. Those winners advance to state competitions each spring, and state gold medalists earn the right to compete nationally at the SkillsUSA Championships each June. Along with gold, silver and bronze medallions, competitors may earn scholarships, tools of the trade, and even job offers right off the competition floor.

“It’s always a thrill for PA to hear our state called to the National Stage. In that moment, we are one team embracing the victory at the end of a life-changing journey,” said Dodie Amigh, SkillsUSA Pennsylvania-Executive Director.
