

Sewage Line Rupture Causes Crisis For Selinsgrove Area Residents

A major sewage line ruptured on Sunday near the East Snyder County Sewage Treatment Facility in Selinsgrove. The rupture spilled raw sewage into Penns Creek and the Susquehanna River.

The 20 inch pipe that carries up to two million gallons of sewage daily from Selinsgrove, Shamokin Dam, Monroe Township and Penn Township was temporarily repaired on Sunday night and full repairs are scheduled for this week.

Authorities are still asking residents to reduce their sewage usage until permanent repairs are completed. Suggested measures include limiting dish washing, laundry, and limiting shower time. Toilet use is still permitted.

The public is advised to avoid Penns Creek and the Susquehanna River south of Selinsgrove due to potential contamination.

The work impacted SR 11 & 15 exit ramp to SR 35 on Wednesday and a detour was set in place.

DEP is advising that during the repair, more raw sewage may be released. Drinking water still remains safe but DEP advises avoiding river activities such as swimming, and boating for 20 miles downstream.

WILLIAMS GROVE RACES, BAPS GET RAINED OUT GOBRECHT RACE NOW OCTOBER 26

Friday night at Williams Grove speedway Justin Whittall scored his first grove win of the season and second of his career there. Justin earned $6,000 for the win and got a guaranteed starting spot for the $10,000 to win Kevin Gobrecht Classic at Baps which was rained out last Saturday and now will be run on Saturday October 26th, and if he would win that race, he is lined up for a $2,500 bonus. His Williams grove win was just what his team needed, his last two races at the grove have produced two top ten runs and his last four races at Port Royal was all top ten runs with a second and fifth place runs in his last two races. Whittall became the thirteenth different winner out of twenty feature events run so far. The Grove has three more-point races starting this Friday night with the WOO Outlaw 410-sprint tune up race with another $6,000 to win. The race night will have the Outlaw format with time trials heats and a dash to set the field for the 25-lap feature. Freddie Rahmer leads Troy Wagaman by 270-points with three-point races left TJ Stutts, Lucas Wolfe and Danny Dietrich are in the top five. In the Diamond series points Danny Dietrich leads Wagaman by 240 with Freddie Rahmer, Lucas Wolfe, and TJ Stutts next. The 358-sprints run their final race of the year this Friday night, with Doug Hammaker leading Derek Locke by 20-points. Cole Young scored his first ever 358-sprint car win at the Grove on Friday, Cole is the son of Nicki Young who has two career 410-sprint wins there.

Williams Grove and Lincoln speedway will have 410-sprint car races this weekend, with both shows offering the 358-sprints. Going into this weekend in the J&S Classic Central Pennsylvania sprint car series points Danny Dietrich is leading with 1178 and ten feature wins while Anthony Macri has 1032 and thirteen feature wins. Freddie Rahmer Troy Wagaman and Chase Dietz are in the top five, the series checks the top 25-in points, which have had 21 feature winners in the top 25. Lincoln speedway after this Saturday has two more races for the 410-sprints, October 12th which will now be the WOO series on hand, then the final point show of the season takes place at Lincoln on Saturday October 19th. Lincoln has had ten different feature winners in sixteen races run so far, this Saturday show at Lincoln will be the Weldon Sterner Memorial race paying the winner $10,000 to win. Troy Wagaman is leading the 410-sprint points with 4145 last year's champ Freddie Rahmer is next with 3990, then Matt Campbell, Aaron Bollinger, and Cameron Smith. Anthony Macri has the most wins with four; two wins each for Wagaman, Matt Campbell, and Aaron Bollinger. In 358-sprint action there have been ten different winners in eleven races run with Andy best the tracks only repeat winner. Steve Owings leads the points with 2400 over Cody Fletcher 2310, then Doug Hammaker, 2290

The URC United Racing Club completed their 2024 season last Saturday night at Bridgeport speedway with a field of sixteen drivers on hand. It was a rough year for the series only able to get seven of the scheduled twelve races in the books. The series which is in its 70th season of racing claiming to be the oldest sprint car traveling series in the country. Josh Weller wins back-to-back titles winning it this year over Ken Meiser and Robbie Stillwaggon, Weller picked up three wins in root to his title, with Tyler Ross two wins, single wins to Reese N-wotarski, and Ryan Tayler. Things not much better for the East Coast wingless series, they did run 13-events losing a bunch to bad weather, and now last in the year the cars counts have not been very good. The final point race which was to be held this Friday at Georgetown speedway has been cancelled. With that Steve Drevicki will be the points champion 828 to 695 over Christian Bruno, with Bruce Buckwalter, Ed Aiken, and Briggs Danner in the top five. Danner scored the most wins with five, but did not run all of the shows. Kenny Miller had two wins, with single wins to Drevicki, Buckwalter, Alex Bright, Joey Amantea, and Danny Varin. There could be racing for the series at Bridgeport the first weekend in November which they would be a part of a 410-show that the speedway along with Danny Dietrich will be promoting. Speaking of Dietrich, after the BAPS speedway canceled, Danny made the trip to Sharon for the Lou Blaney Memorial which was the sixteenth running of this event, Danny placed second in the feature, with Dave Blaney getting the feature win in the race honoring his Dad. After the win Dave announced that he is retiring from racing after his third win in the event, the others came in 2014 and 2018. Dave won $12,000, and before his NASCAR career won 95-WOO series sprint car features, and the championship in the 1995 season. The race drew a nice field of 39 drivers, with Dave's brother Dale placing sixth in the feature, Ryan Smith who led early in the race, dropped out and was credited with a 21st place finish.

The PASS 305-sprint car series season is winding down, last Saturday at Path Valley speedway a field of 28-drivers were on hand with Zach Rhodes picking up the win over Austin Greenland, John Walp, Beavert Springs driver Paul Moyer and Ian Cumens. This Saturday at Hagerstown speedway will be the final series point's race, with Ken Duke of Winfield leading the points with 548 to Kreamer's driver Kruz Kepner at 513, Zach Rhodes, Doug Dodson and Nick Sweigart in the top five. There will be two other non-point events for the series with races at BAPS speedway on Friday October 11th and at Path Valley on Saturday October 19th.

The #67 of Ken Duke, JR racing with Owen Dimm from Mifflintown. Ken finished 8th in the 305 feature event and Owen was awarded the hard charger award finishing in 7th place from his 20th starting spot.

The 305 PASS (PA Sprint Series) racers from Snyder and Union County competed this past Saturday at Path Valley Speedway in Spring Run, PA. After an extremely long rain delay, the track finally got cars on the track at around 8pm. So with all the rain, the track was super tacky and fast! Those competing were Paul Moyer and Drew Young of Beaver Springs, Kruz Kepner of Kreamer and Ken Duke, Jr of Winfield.

Having a great effort and best finish of his career was Paul Moyer who finished in 4th Place. After winning his heat, Paul started on the pole and had his sprint car dialed in. He led 17 of the 25 laps but ran out of tear offs and with the all the rain the track was extremely muddy. Paul had to drive with one hand and keep wiping his visor with his other hand to see. But he still finished the race behind the leaders and finished in a solid 4th place.

Kruz Kepner also had his # 19 305 sprint car on rails and was on Paul's bumper in just a few laps, with the track being only a ¼ mile in size, the cars were already lapping cars after just a few laps. Kruz was running in 2nd place and got caught up with a lapped car and he jumped his rear tire and sent Kruz spinning backwards into the fence. Kruz was able to continue and worked his way back up to 10th place after having to start last on the restart.

Drew Young had one of those nights he would like to forget. He got anxious on a restart in the heat race and jumped the right rear tire of the car ahead of him and broke the shock tower. Thanks to Kruz Kepner they provided Drew with a bolt on tower to get out for the B Main. Having to rush, he didn't adjust the valving of the shock which hampered his attempt to qualify in the B Main. He then found out later that he also sustained another broken part on the car, hence the car not wanting to turn.

Ken Duke, Jr. finished in 8th place from his 12th place start. He battled with a tight race car but was happy to roll a very muddy race car into the trailer in one piece. Ken is sitting in the lead for the PASS point championship with a very comfortable lead with just one more point's race on the schedule.

Next Saturday is the 305's PASS finals point race at Hagerstown, MD.

Joanne Mae (Heck) Kerstetter, 82, Selingsgrove

Joanne passed away peacefully in her home on September 19, 2024, following a valiantly fought battle with cancer. She is survived by her son Matthew (Jennifer); grandchildren Emily and Madelynn; sister Bernadine McCoy; niece Marti Jo McCoy; nephew Michael McCoy, and many beloved cousins. She is preceded in death by her husband Barry, son Kevin, and brother-in-law Charles McCoy, as well as many aunts and uncles. Joanne was born on April 23, 1942 in Lewistown, PA to Irwin and Nellie (Helwig) Heck. There she grew up with her sister Bernadine and graduated from Chief Logan High School in 1960. She later went on to become a licensed beautician. Although she did not make this her career, many family members and friends benefited from this talent over the years. She married Barry Kerstetter in 1961 and they raised two sons, Kevin and Matthew.

At a young age, Joanne gave her life to her Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, and faithfully served Him throughout her life. She had a heart for children and welcomed countless children and teens in to her home over the years for Good News Clubs and Christmas birthday parties for Jesus. Her home was filled with many children for her Easter Good News specials and egg hunts. Many miles were put on her car delivering homemade candy and rice pudding to many friends, relatives and shut ins as well as sending small boxes of her chocolates to missionaries and military friends all over the world. Joanne also taught Sunday School for many years and helped with the Awana program at Christ Community United Methodist Church in Selingsgrove.

Joanne, Bernadine, and Marti Jo shared a special bond and enjoyed travelling, especially to attend Women of Faith events/cruises, Gaither Homecoming concerts and anything Disney related. Her love of music was evident in her singing or whistling around the house with music playing loudly in the background. She was also passionate about nature, tending to her birds and flowers as well as decorating her home for every holiday. When Penn State football was playing, she could be heard for long distances cheering them on to victory. Joanne especially loved her ice cream. She was known to share a meal with someone but never her ice cream.

As a young girl, Joanne met a missionary from Africa in her church, Rhode Memorial church in Lewistown. She was so impacted by his smile; it became her desire to visit Africa. That dream was realized in 1994 when she went to Kenya witha Messiah College alumni work team. That was the first of 12 trips she made to East Africa. She loved her time in Africa and the experiences she had there (rafting the Nile River, numerous safaris, swimming with sea turtles). Throughout her travels around the world, she shared her love of her Lord with everyone she met. This was her life mission and what was of utmost importance to her.

She was incredibly grateful for all the acts of love and support she received from so many people as her health declined. The many visitors, cards and phone calls kept her spirits lifted until she went home to spend eternity with her Lord. She felt blessed to be able to participate in her own "Celebration of Life" service with those who were part of her journey. Her hope was to be joined one day in heaven by her friends and family that heard the Good News. A celebration of life service will be held at Love Hill Barn at 478 Sunanday Lane, in Allenwood, PA on October 26th at 11 am. There will be light refreshments and ice cream (at her request) following her celebration.

Judith M. Hile, 82, Winfield

She was born December 24, 1941 in Jackson Twp., Snyder Co., a daughter of the late Thomas J. Sr. and Arlene (Swope) Beaver. On March 28, 1959 she married Raymond W. "Jim" Hile Jr. who preceded her in death on February 6, 2021. They shared a marital union of 61 years. Judith was a graduate of Selingsgrove Area High School. She was a member of Zion Evangelical Lutheran Church in Kratzerville. Judith worked as an aide at the Selingsgrove Center and as a clerk at the Hummels Wharf Post Office. Her pride and joy in life was spending time and caring for her grandchildren.

Surviving is one son, James "Jimmy" (Jayme) Hile; two grandchildren; Logan and Brandon Hile; siblings, Michael (Pam) Beaver, Thomas Beaver, Linda (Robert) Ritter, Susan (Jack) Marks; brother-in-law, Eugene Paige; and numerous nieces and nephews. She was preceded in death by two siblings, Rose (Norman) Pretz, Dorothy Paige; sisters-in-law, Dottie Beaver, Irene (Thomas) Sillin, Joyce Hile, and Mary Jane (Andrew) Long.

A viewing will be held on Monday, September 23 from 10-11 am at Zion Lutheran Church, 4298 Rt. 204, Selingsgrove (Kratzerville) followed by the funeral service at 11 am with Rev. Kristina Schaeffer officiating.

Burial will follow in Zion Lutheran Church Cemetery, Selingsgrove. In lieu of flowers, contributions in Judith's memory may be made to Zion Lutheran Church or to the Kratzerville Volunteer Fire Co., 62 Fire Hall Rd., Selingsgrove, PA 17870.

Arrangements are by the V.L. Seebold Funeral Home, 601 N. High St., Selinsgrove.

By Debbie Gastelu

A car show was held at the Grace Covenant Community Church in Middleburg this past Saturday and was proudly sponsored by the Cub Scout Pack 3451. The car show benefited the Middleburg Cub Scout Pack 3451 as the funds raised to help pay their yearly dues.

There were 28 entries in the car show which included trucks, cars and motorcycles. Trophies were awarded to People's choice, Kid's choice, Best 4x4 and many more categories. Other activities included a Chinese Auction, Flea Market/Yard Sale and food stand all held in the church. One of the entries was an awesome Ratrod solely built by Ben Bilger of Globe Mills. Ben got it out of a junkyard and it sat on top of a school bus for over 25 years. "It's actually a 1934 Chevy with a 289 Ford Engine and built with parts I found and bought here and there" said Ben. He got it in 2011 and got it on the road in 2017 and won the Ratrod class at the Bloomsburg Nationals that year and a few other trophies over the years. "Its fun driving down the road as I get a lot of thumbs up from people that see me coming" stated Ben.

Culver Excited about Announcement to Reopen Three Mile Island

Following Constellation Energy’s announcement that it signed a 20-year power purchase agreement with Microsoft to launch the Crane Clean Energy Center (CCEC) and restart Three Mile Island (TMI) Unit 1, Sen. Lynda Schlegel Culver (R-27) expressed excitement and optimism about the news.

“It is exciting to hear that Constellation Energy has agreed with Microsoft to restart TMI Unit 1,” Culver said. “This investment will have a huge impact on the immediate community, the region and the entire commonwealth. Investments in Pennsylvania’s energy capacity will make us more attractive for industries looking to expand. It’s simple: investments in Pennsylvania energy create new jobs with family-sustaining wages.”

The announcement states that CCEC expects to be online by 2028.

“Nuclear generation produces clean, carbon-free and sustainable energy,” Culver said. “Expansions in nuclear energy will strengthen grid reliability, diversify Pennsylvania’s energy portfolio and enable us to be the top energy exporter in the nation.”

More information about the plan for TMI can be found at ConstellationEnergy.com. Information on the Nuclear Energy Caucus can be found at NuclearEnergy.PASenateGOP.com.

911 Text Service Available in All Counties

From the E-Newsletter of State Rep. Stephanie Borowicz

The Pennsylvania Emergency Management Agency is reminding citizens you can now text 911 in any county across the Commonwealth. Texting 911 is as simple as texting a friend. Type 911 in the “to” field and explain what is happening in your text. Include your location.

Texting 911 is ideal if the person trying to report the emergency is deaf, hard of hearing or has a speech disability; is having an emergency and cannot talk on the phone; is in a situation in which it is not safe to call 911.

PEMA recommends calling if at all possible, as it provides background sounds and context clues to aid operators and emergency responders. But if you can’t call, texting is the next best thing.

Selinsgrove Artists Capture the Town’s Beauty in Plein Air Competition

By Jamiee Joiner

The vibrant colors of autumn painted the town of Selinsgrove in a picturesque palette as artists from across the region gathered for the annual Plein Air Art Competition. This year’s event saw thirty-four participants, twelve of whom were students, each showcasing their unique artistic interpretations of the town’s scenic beauty.

The annual competition, hosted by the Selinsgrove Chamber of Commerce and which took place on Saturday, September 21, 2024, challenged artists to create original works of art outdoors, directly from the landscapes that inspired them. Participants could choose from a variety of local landmarks, including the Susquehanna River, the historic downtown district, the vibrant campus of Susquehanna University, or the most popular each year, the Selinsgrove Farmers Market in the Commons.

As the artists set up their easels in various locations throughout the town, they were met by curious onlookers and enthusiastic supporters. Many residents were delighted to see their beloved community captured on canvas in such a beautiful and expressive way, and I definitely felt the same. The competition culminated in a public exhibition of the completed artworks, where attendees had the opportunity to admire the diverse styles and techniques on display. There were impressionistic landscapes created with anything from oil paints, acrylics, and watercolors to colored pencils, crayons, or markers, and the paintings offered a glimpse into the artists’ personal perspectives on Selinsgrove’s charm and character.

The first-place winner of the competition was Kelly Charlesworth with her beautiful river scene, second-place winner was Susan Boudman with her farmers market scene, and third-place winner was Jane Albin who also painted the beauty of the farmers’ market .Christine Cordone-Smith received an Honorable Mention for her depiction of BJ’s M Street Tavern & Oyster Bar. The artwork will be showcased at the Selinsgrove Chamber of Commerce’s booth at this weekend’s upcoming Market Street Festival and then will be featured inside The Kind Café for the remainder of the week.

The Plein Air Art Competition is not only a celebration of artistic talent but also a way to promote community engagement by getting out in the open air in our local community. By highlighting the beauty of Selinsgrove, the event helps to attract visitors downtown and generates a sense of pride among its residents. There were four judges who evaluated the art based upon their own tastes as there is no specific judging criteria for the competition. Selinsgrove Chamber of Commerce President, Helen Walter, stated, “I’m always amazed at the artwork of the participants.”

For those interested in casting their vote, Viewer’s Choice Ballots were available for purchase for $5.00 each.

The Reverend Canon Paul C. Donecker of All Saints Episcopal Church of Selinsgrove said, “There were a number of young local artists participating in this year’s competition. The Church donated the first prize for the youth competition which was a $100 gift card to Brush-strokes in Lewisburg. It’s another way to promote local businesses. I hope it (the competition) keeps growing next year.”

The artists worked on their pieces from 9-11 a.m. Their artwork was displayed across the street from All Saints Episcopal Church under a large tent. The Church then hosted the artist’s lunch where they served ciabatta sandwiches catered from Isabella’s Ristorante.

Making it a family event was Selinsgrove resident and mom, Kelsey Beaver, a first-time participant in the competition. She said that she and her family saw people doing it last year and decided that they wanted to be a part of it for this year. She said, “We are already excited to try new things for next year!”

Beaver and her family focused on the area of the Pump House, and her children, Wyatt Beaver, 10, Lucas Beaver, 8, Brody Guffey, 9, and Lakota Beaver, 8, all created amazing works of art.

If you are interested in participating in next year’s Canvas the Grove Plein Air Competition, mark your calendars now for Saturday, September20, 2025.

A special thank you to Allen A. Shaffer Insurance and the Susquehanna River Valley for their generous sponsorship of this event.

The Beaver Community Fair is a real country fair that provided lots of fun for all. The annual event celebrates the best of country living and has been doing so for 95 years. It is the only agricultural fair in Snyder County! The fair includes Livestock and Farm Competitions, Agricultural Exhibits, Kids Farm Games, Rides and Midway Games, Baking Contests, Tractor Pulls, musical entertainment, midway rides, and of course lots of food!

The fair was well attended. On Friday night the tractor pull stands were packed and it was standing room only! Debbie Gastelu couldn't believe how many food vendors were there. "The kids were playing in the pits of the tractors. I can say that it was a family environment as these kids are the future of the sport."
