

Ella's Miracle Fundraiser Event

By Kay Poeth

Ella's Miracle Fundraiser Event will be held on Saturday, November 5 from 9 am- 3 pm at Every Occasion Venue in Middleburg, next to Central IGA. This event features a variety of vendors, a silent auction, raffle, food, balloon animals, and face painting.

Ella Schultz is a young girl who has suffered from thousands of seizures due to severe epilepsy. Her parents are now seeking a costly medical procedure that is not covered by insurance to help their daughter. The first treatment cost over $8,000.

According to her mother Jaime Schultz, "Ella has struggled with Epilepsy and severe delays since she was 2. At 4 it turned into medicine resistant Epilepsy and she has had almost daily seizures, some multiple a day, since then. We have tried many different natural ways and products and therapies, none of which helped."

She further explains, "We have felt it was time to try stem cells because of the great reviews from others. We found a clinic in Harrisburg that does stem cell therapy and Ella had her first infusion a couple months ago. Our plans going forward are to get her 2 or 3 more doses... Our goal is to see our girl free from seizures and fully healed."

"We have put all our trust in our Heavenly Father to do more than we can ask or think because we know that through Him all things are possible!" states Jaime.

Please mark your calendars for November 5 and plan to stop by and support Ella's Miracle Fundraiser. Join Ella's Miracle group for more updates and information.

The Midd-West Production of "Clue" will be presented on November 3-5 at 7 pm at the Midd-West High School auditorium blackmail on the menu.

Mrs. Peacock is portrayed by Junior, Kaitlyn Jefferys. "My character provides comedic relief in the play. I am excited to make the audience laugh." Kaitlyn has been acting in Midd-West production since 8th grade. "This is my sixth production. I enjoy performing in both musicals and plays.

Nathaniel Leitzel who plays the part of Professor Plum enjoys how his character is "very stuck up and arrogant and brings a sarcastic flair to the play. I am excited for the audience to attend this play to see how the cast brings this popular board game to life on stage!"

Nathaniel, a senior, has also been performing since 8th grade. "I love seeing the audience reactions to the characters that I portray."

Adam Dietz is the Artistic Director and Carla Wray is the Assistant Director. "This is our first traditional performance of a play since 2019. We produced a small in-house show...a series of one-on-one vignettes...in the Fall of 2020, but due to COVID protocols at the time, our rehearsal process and presentation was very unusual," explained Dietz. "So, it's been very nice having the opportunity to really dig into the material with an entire group of actors and directors once again."

"I have been so grateful for the opportunity to join the Midd-West Theatre department this year. Seeing the high school students that I formerly knew as elementary children explore their creative talents has been extremely fulfilling," commented Carla Wray. "They have been determined to share their admiration for theatre in spite of busy schedules and multiple commitments. This show is somewhat demanding with fast-paced commentary and whirlwind action, but the cast has risen to the challenge.

Audience members will not be disappointed."

Dietz agreed. "I'm thrilled to be working with such a talented cast and a supportive production team. Together, they've made my job easier. Of course, while the journey of getting to opening night has been a very rewarding... albeit stressful...experience, there's nothing quite like hearing a receptive audience show their appreciation for students that have worked extremely hard to bring then an evening of entertainment. I do hope you'll consider coming out for a little taste of theatre magic. It promises to be a calamity of fun!"

Historical Society’s Program

By Kay Poeth

Guy Graybill, a Paxtonville native and former Middleburg High School history teacher and Snyder County Commissioner, will be the guest speaker for the November 6 meeting of the Snyder County Historical Society, to be held in the Historical Society Museum located at 30 East Market St. in Middleburg. A business meeting will begin at 2 pm with the program to follow.

Graybill’s presentation will highlight writer, folklorist, and environmentalist, Henry W. Shoemaker of New York City and McElhattan, Pennsylvania (near Jersey Shore) in Clinton County. Mr. Shoemaker was well known in Snyder County as one of the Alpine Club, which had over half of its officers from Snyder County. He is also the writer who told of the buffalo hunt near Port Ann that, he claimed, led to the extinction of buffalos in Pennsylvania.

That story is but one of many that Graybill debunks in his newest book: Henry Wharton Shoemaker: Scoundrel of the Susquehanna. Graybill will cite various aspects of Shoemaker’s life that he will offer as clear evidence that Shoemaker was a great story teller; but a dishonest historian, including his writing that is on one of the state’s still-standing historical markers!

Mark your calendars for November 6 at 2 pm and plan to attend this enlightening presentation. Refreshment will be served at the conclusion of the program.

Sunbury YMCA to Provide Coats to Local Children and Families in Need

Edited by Kay Poeth

This fall, over 600 Susquehanna Valley children and families in need will receive winter coats courtesy of the Sunbury YMCA Coat Drive. For the 19th consecutive year, the Sunbury YMCA has partnered with local businesses dedicated to providing hope, happiness and warmth for children and families in need through the gift of gently-used winter coats.

Donations are being accepted now! There is a great need for children’s coats throughout the Valley. Items may be dropped off at any Y branch in Mifflinburg, Lewisburg, Sunbury, Milton. Special thanks to Steininger’s Laundry & Dry Cleaning in Selinsgrove for cleaning all of the donated items again this year. The YMCA is grateful for all donations.

The free coat give-a-way will be held on November 7 from 11 am-7pm, November 8 from 11 am-5 pm and November 9 from 8 am-noon at the Sunbury YMCA located at 1150 N. 4th Street in Sunbury.

“A new coat allows families to stretch limited financial resources to other basic necessities like food and shelter,” stated Katrina Mouery. “When you can put a coat on a child that really needed one, it can change everything for that child. The smile on that child’s face says everything”

For more information or to make a donation, please call Katrina Mouery at 570.286.5636 or visit: www.gsvymca.org

A Night of Fun at The Library!

Memorial Flagpole Installed at Charles Park Lake

By Kay Poeth

The 55 foot Memorial Flagpole overlooks Charles Park Lake. A "Freedom Pavers" fundraiser is now underway for brick to surround the flagpole. Contact the Middleburg Borough Office for applications.

On October 18, 2022, a cold and blustery day, PPL Electric installed a flagpole at Charles Park Lake, across from the large fountain. The Middleburg Revitalization Committee (MRC) purchased the 55 foot black memorial flagpole in honor of all residents who have passed away. After being raised, an impressive 12x18 foot American flag fluttered proudly in the wind.

George Long and Alma Moody-Long generously donated funds towards the project. PPL Electric generously donated their time and use of their equipment for the installation. "PPL believes in giving back. We want the communities where we live, work and play to be healthy and strong. Our employees mentor students, volunteer at food banks, and help to revitalize and clean up parks," stated Tracie Witter, PPL Electric Utilities Regional Affairs

Director. "Our employees who helped install the flagpole at Charles Park in Middleburg are a great example of our commitment to the community."

Next spring, the MRC will landscape around the flagpole with materials donated by Lowe's. The organization will be selling personalized, engraved, brick pavers to surround the pole. The bricks are 4 x 8" Belden Regimental Red pavers with no lugs and a chamfered edge. Pavers are $50. Each brick will include 1-3 lines of text at 15 characters per line. Bricks will be painted with a black lithochrome paint that is made for outdoors.

The "Freedom Paver" project recognizes Middleburg friends and businesses, past and present, who have touched lives and made a positive impact in the community. According to Mike Moyer, the paver fundraiser provides an opportunity for "Anyone who wants to make a statement of personal feelings or one in recognition of another individual/business. It may include individuals who have passed away or those who are currently serving the community. Each individual considering the purchase of a paver will have their own very personal reasons for participating in the fundraising drive."

The sale of the personalized "Freedom Pavers" will kick off at the Holiday Craft & Gift Show held at Grace Covenant Community Church on November 12. They will also be sold at the Middleburg Borough Building. Applications, with all required information completed, along with check or money order payable to "Middleburg Revitalization Committee" and mailed to Middleburg Revitalization Committee, PO Box 184, Middleburg, PA 17842.

"The flagpole will be a wonderful addition to the town and is an example of another successful beautification project completed by the MRC," said Brenda Dombrowski.

Mike Moyer agreed. "This project is another opportunity to further enhance the community as well as the Charles Park area. A spotlight will illuminate the flagpole making it visible throughout the town."

MRC President Diane Klingler added, "The Memorial Flagpole will here for years to come. The view from the flagpole and the fountains from Charles Park is spectacular."

LANCE DEWEASE WINS THE WOO RACE AT WILLIAMS GROVE, POSSE SWEEPS TOP THREE

Lance Dewease beat the WOO traveling series Saturday night at Williamson Grove speedway and took home the $75,000 top prize. Lance finished out the season at Williams Grove with five straight wins, and eight total for the season. Lance beat the WOO series two times and the All-Stars series once over the course of his five wins, Dewease and the Donnie Kreitz owned team do not race all the time so he was racing for a track title, Brent Marks and Anthony Macri placed second and third for the sweep for the Pa Posse last Saturday. Danny Dietrich had to come from deep in the field to place 8th in the feature to win his second Grove 410-sprint title, Dietrich was 185 points behind Freddie Rahmer going into the night, with Rahmer not qualifying for the feature, Danny raced from his 19th starting spot to the spot he needed and won the title by 10-points. Right now, in the Hosehead sprint car series point standings Anthony Macri leads the way with 22 wins and 1973 points Dietrich is second with 12-wins and 1722 with Brent Marks 10-wins and 1382. Bridgeport speedway will be the site for the next three 410-sprint car races, followed by BAPS Motor speedway for the final race of the local season on Saturday November 12th.

Talk about a hot driver check out the run by Big Block Modified driver Matt Sheppard of Waterloo, N.Y. who over the last month has won all of the big Modified races, starting with Fulton 200, Super Dirt week at Oswego, Port Royal Speed showcase event and last weekend the Orange County Eastern States 200. The money he has earned just over four weekends amounts to over $200,000 and is now close to $800,000 for the season. Super Matt has now over 40-wins for the season, with a few events left on his schedule including the race at the world Finals in Charlotte, N.C. next month.

Last weekend the Pass 305-sprint series drew a field of 51-drivers for the final race of the season at Port Royal speedway. Kenny Heffner looked to been his way to the feature win and the $800-plus winners share when he and second place Drew Ritchey both got caught up in a wreck with two other cars they were about to lap, which handed the win over to Logan Spahr over Garrett Bard. Dillan Stake won his sixth limited late model feature of the year and also scored his first ever track championship. Bap's speedway which also ran on Friday night had Gio Scelzi score the feature win over Justin Peck. It was the third 410-sprint at Baps this season with four other races falling victims to rain outs, Danny Dietrich and Brent Marks also have wins at Baps. Travis Mease won the limited late model feature and locked up the track championship, getting his second win of the season and beating out his brother Derrick for the title by 105. Path Valley ran their season final last Saturday for the Bullring nationals with a six-division show. Kyle Lear scored the win in the limited late model class, but the week before Steve Lowery won the divisions track title, with his consistent runs as he did not win a feature there all season out of the 14-races on their schedule. The Wingless sportsman feature went to Craig Perigo over Steve Wilbur and Billy Brian Jr., Kameron Moral won the 600-micro feature with Selinsgrove driver Brice Harro placing 6th and Middleburg driver and Clinton County champ Trevor Teats 11th. Over 100 drivers were on hand for the final event at Path Valley this season.

This coming weekend with a bit of a travel trip fans can choose between seeing three different sprint car divisions at Bridgeport speedway in New Jersey or the super late models and Big Block Modifieds at Georgetown speedway in Delaware. Then over four days the World Finals will take place at the dirt track in Charlotte N.C. for the Woo super late models, 410-sprint cars and DIRT Big Block Modifieds. On November 2-5, like I mentioned earlier the final on the local scene is the Baps motor speedway for the 410-sprints and 358-spec Modifieds. Bridgeport will have three days of sprint car racing along with the 410's will be 360-URC sprints and the 360 wingless sprints. Friday October 28th will have 20-lap non-winners' races for all three divisions. Saturday will have qualifying races for the 360's and a full program for the 410's paying $5,000 to win, while Sunday will have the 410's racing for $15,000 to win and full programs for the 360's with all features racing for 40-laps. Georgetown speedway will be racing for three days also with racing starting this Thursday, with a make-up event for the super late models paying $5,500 to win the and Modifieds the same, along with six other divisions. Friday will be qualifying for the divisions on hand and Saturday it all come to an end with the super racing for another $5,000 to win or more with a Gamblers fee, the Modifieds race for $25,000 to win also four other divisions in action, with the weekend pays out over $182,715 the biggest payout in the track history.

This is a wrap for another season of racing news for the SCUC times it has been a joy to report events and upcoming races for this paper and I could not do this without the great staff that Sue has put together at the paper. It could also not be done without great sponsors like Selinsgrove Ford, Bud Godak Auto Body, Horstcraft Millworks, Bachman Auto Body, and our silent sponsor, all of this could not be done with all the help from everyone. Thanks again and will back for another season sometime in April or May of the 2023 racing season.

Obituaries

Scott Eugene Bachman, 66, Sunbury

Scott Eugene Bachman, 66, slipped quietly into eternal rest on October 18, 2022 with his wife Brenda and brother Larry and sister in law Claudia by his side. His loved ones have been humbled by his bravery while trying to fight against the diseases that eventually overtook him.

Scott loved music and he loved playing his guitar. He taught himself how to play when he was 18 yrs. old. He used to tell Brenda he had a jukebox constantly playing in his head! Introduced into the music scene by his older brother in the late sixties, it wasn't long before he was playing in a band and traveling throughout the region doing what he loved. He had the privilege of recording at the Record Plant in New York City, at Pat McGuire's Studio in Arlington, Texas and locally with his band members in PA Crude.

Scott has done much throughout the years for people involved in music and entertainment in this locality. He taught music. He gave people the opportunity to perform both vocally and musically at open mic events. He mentored younger musicians and always hoped he changed their lives for the better. For musicians and family alike, it is a loss of a brother, a fellow comrade and friend, but most importantly Brenda his wife has lost all of the above including a loving and caring husband.

Scott spent the majority of his life being a full time musician and teacher. In the past he worked at the Middleburg Golf Club, Listening Booth, Wall to Wall Sound and Video, worked construction did painting and most recently worked at the Rusty Rail Brewing Company and Three Beards Brewery.

Scott also loved being on the Susquehanna river in the summer on his ponton with Brenda and friends! He enjoyed gardening, spending time in the outdoors and socializing around a camp fire.

Scott was the son of the late Ben and Leona Bachman of Middleburg, PA. He is survived by his wife Brenda Wetzel Bachman of 37 years. A brother; Larry Ben Bachman and his wife Claudia of Texas; A brother in law; Todd Wetzel and his wife Deleen, his nephews; Benjamin Bachman of Mt Joy, PA, Adam Bachman of Helena, Montana, Michael Haddon of Columbia, SC, Ted Panov of NY, NY, Benjamin Wetzel and Alex Wetzel of Sunbury, PA, his nieces; Sheinny Lazo and Larayne Bachman, Grand Prairie, Texas, Stasya Erickson of Syracuse, NY, Rebekah Pastuszek of Sunbury, Elizabeth Gay of Milton and Abigail Hoover of Northumberland, PA.

Scott asked to be cremated and wished not to have a service but instead to have his family and musician friends have a celebration of life. A place and date will be announced later.

Donations may be made to the American Cancer Society.

MACC Partners With Geisinger's Mobile Health Services

The Geisinger's Mobile Health Services bus provides services at the MACC every Tuesday from 8 am-2 pm.

Geisinger is making it easy and convenient to get laboratory collection services in the Beaver Springs area through its Mobile Health Services bus. The bus will be set up each Tuesday in the parking lot of the Middlecreek Area Community Center, 67 Elm St. Beaver Springs, from 8 am to 2 pm.

Geisinger staff will provide laboratory collection services right on the bus, including blood draws and urine samples. This convenient option allows patients with lab orders, like those with diabetes, to receive care without having to travel long distances to clinics.

No appointment is necessary for lab services. The bus will serve anyone who needs them, including Geisinger patients and those of other providers.

“The mobile unit is an easy and convenient option for those needing laboratory services,” said Ken Smeal, operations manager of mobile phlebotomy for Geisinger. “Bringing the care service to the community instead of asking them to travel long distances all leads to our goal of making better health easier.”

Geisinger's Mobile Health Services bus is a 41-foot clinical unit that brings important health services to communities across Geisinger's service area. The bus is outfitted with a triage space, private exam room and bathroom. The Mobile Health Services bus is one of four mobile units Geisinger has in service.

Though no appointment is necessary for lab services on the mobile unit in Beaver Springs, Geisinger patients can self-schedule an appointment via MyGeisinger. Anyone who is not a Geisinger patient is required to have a doctor's order in hand to have their blood work completed. This is a great service that closes the care gaps in rural areas. Attached is a photo of the bus.

Youth in Philanthropy

By Kay Poeth

Selingsgrove Area High School students participated in the Youth in Philosophy sponsored by the Community Giving Foundation kicking off their understanding of philanthropy.

Midd-West High School students explore the world of philanthropy and learn about the grant-making process.

Thirteen school districts are participating in the Youth in Philanthropy Program for the 2022-2023 school year. On Wednesday, October 19, students from Midd-West, Selingsgrove, Shikellamy, Line Mountain and Warrior Run gathered to work on proposals and to discuss needs within their communities.

Sponsored by the Community Giving foundation, the purpose of the Youth in Philanthropy Program (YIP) is to engage young people in philanthropic "giving" and to participate in the grant making process. The teams created plans to use surveys, interviews and focus groups to assess their school and community needs.

When asked "What does philanthropy me to you?" Delaney Parker, 11th grade student at Selingsgrove Area High School replied, "It is a lot about giving back to the community and how you can not only use your money, but your time and resources to better your community."

According to Eric Pangelinan, Program Officer at Community Giving Foundation, "Students gain experience in teamwork, community needs, running meetings, building consensus, nonprofit finance and other topics."

Lauryn Aucker, 12th grade student at Midd-West High School and a 4th year member of this program noted, "To me Philanthropy means finding needs in the community, assessing those needs, and then giving to the areas that are in need." Lauryn further explained how the Youth in Philanthropy Program helped her to understand philanthropy, saying, "I have met a lot of different nonprofits that were in need that I had no clue existed. We gave back to the ones that made an impact on other people's lives."

The program culminates with each team of students presenting up to $5,000 in grant investments to their school and community.

Pennsylvania's fall turkey season, an annual opportunity to pursue the state's only big-game bird among the changing colors of the autumn woods, kicks off Saturday, Oct. 29 in 19 of Pennsylvania's 23 Wildlife Management Units (WMUs.)

The fall season is closed in WMUs 5A, 5C and 5D. For the remaining WMUs the season lengths are as follows: WMUs 1A, 1B, 4A, 4B, 4D and 4E - Oct. 29-Nov. 5; WMU 2B - Oct. 29-Nov. 18 and Nov. 23-25; WMUs 2A, 2F, 2G, 2H, 3A, 3B, 3C, 3D and 4C - Oct. 29-Nov. 12; WMU 2C, 2D & 2E - Oct. 29-Nov. 12 and Nov. 23-25; and WMU 5B - Nov. 1-3. Hunters are advised the three-day Thanksgiving season again will run Wednesday, Thursday and Friday where held.

As a reminder, no single-projectile firearms may be used in the fall turkey seasons. Hunters may use shotguns and archery gear only.

While fall turkey hunters no longer are required to wear fluorescent orange, the Game Commission highly recommends the use of orange, especially while moving.

Season outlook
During the fall season, any turkey - male or female - can be harvested. Female turkeys make up about 60% of the fall harvest.

When turkey populations are below-goal in a given WMU, the fall season length is reduced there to allow more female turkeys to survive to their spring nesting season.

Turkey populations in many WMUs were measured below the management goal. Therefore, in 2021, season length in 15 of the 21 WMUs was shortened, or closed, and the use of single-projectile rifles and handguns was eliminated. The 2021 statewide fall harvest (6,800 turkeys) was 20% lower than 2020. Statewide fall hunter participation (81,500 hunters) was 19% less than 2020.

But things are looking up.
Turkey reproduction in 2021 and 2022 was above average across many WMUs.

"This typically results in larger fall flocks," said Game Commission wild turkey biologist Mary Jo Casalena.

And there's plenty of spots where hunters can put themselves in good position to take a bird.

"Expect to find turkey brood flocks concentrated on available food sources, such as areas with acorn production or agricultural areas," Casalena said.

Casalena also encourages hunters to cover a lot of ground to find available food sources. When abundant food is found, determining turkey movement patterns around that food will improve hunter success.

Hunters during fall turkey season share the woods with hunters participating in many other hunting seasons. But fall turkey hunting has proven remarkably safe. 2021 marked the fifth year since 2012 with no hunting related shooting incidents while fall turkey hunting. The other years with no incidents were 2012, 2016, 2018, and 2019.

Harvests and reporting
Everyone who purchases a hunting license receives one fall turkey tag

Successful fall turkey hunters must tag their birds according to instructions provided on the printed harvest tags supplied with their licenses, then report harvests.

Mentored hunters under the age of 7 may receive, by transfer, a fall turkey tag supplied by their mentor.

The turkey must be tagged immediately after harvest and before the turkey is moved, and the tag must be securely attached to a leg until the bird is prepared for consumption or mounting.

Within 10 days of harvest, turkey hunters must report harvests to the Game Commission, either by going online to the Game Commission's website, www.pgc.pa.gov, calling toll-free or mailing in a prepaid postcard.

Hunters reporting their turkey harvests over the telephone can call 1-800-838-4431 and follow the prompts. Hunters will need to have their license and their copy of the harvest tag in front of them when they make the call. Hunters should record the supplied confirmation number for the turkey reported.

All hunters reporting harvests are asked to identify the WMU, county and township where the bird was taken.

Additionally, hunters may harvest a turkey that has been leg-banded for research purposes, and if so, they should follow the instructions on the band. The Game Commission leg-banded more than 800 turkeys last winter in a continuing effort to track turkey populations.

Handling harvested birds
Pennsylvania recently saw a wild turkey test positive for Highly Pathogenic Avian Influenza (HPAI). While turkeys are highly susceptible to the influenza virus, their behavior and habitat use place them at less risk of contracting the disease compared to waterfowl, shorebirds, raptors and avian scavengers.

"This isn't a concern in terms of affecting the entire turkey population," said Game Commission Wildlife Management Bureau Director Matthew Schnupp, "but occurrence will be impossible to predict."

Turkey hunters, and others hunting birds, should take HPAI precautions when handling harvests. In doing so, they not only protect themselves, but help reduce the risk of this extremely contagious disease spreading to other birds.

Bird hunters should:
· Harvest only healthy-looking wild birds.
· Wear gloves when handling any wild birds.
· Wash hands with soap and water or an alcohol-based hand sanitizer immediately after handling wild birds.
· Dress harvested wild birds in the field.
· Change clothing as needed, especially if visibly soiled or if any wild birds came in contact with clothing.
· Change clothing, including footwear, before coming in contact with any pet birds or domestic poultry.
· Wash all equipment, tools, and work surfaces with soap and water, then disinfect with a 10% household bleach solution. Allow to air dry or rinse after 10 minutes of contact time.

HPAI can infect humans, though just one human HPAI case has been reported in the United States during this outbreak.

Any sick or dead domestic birds should be reported to the Pennsylvania Department of Agriculture at 717-772-2852. Sick or dead wild birds should be reported to the Game Commission at 1-833-PGC-WILD or online using the Wildlife Health Survey tool at www.pgcapps.pa.gov/WHS.

Midd-West Adds Layer of Security Protection

By Kay Poeth

During the October 24, 2022 school board meeting, the Midd-West School Board approved to expand the Midd-West Police Department by hiring two Armed Security Guards. The decision was unanimously approved by the board.

“The board has worked together since spring to increase security at all our facilities, making safety a top priority for our students, staff and visitors,” Midd-West Board President, Victor Abate. “We continue to work with our administrative staff and with Officer Mall to make improvements. Safety is an ongoing process, and the board is committed to making the district’s facilities secure.”

Danny D. Knouse and Heidi J. Moyer will join retired State Trooper Paul Mall, Jr. who has served the district as School Police Chief since 2019. The staff will rotate between the Middleburg campus and the West Snyder campus providing fuller coverage across the district. The newly hired armed officers will work 7 hours a day for all 180 days that school is in session at a rate of $27 per hour. Nathan W. Fisher was approved as a substitute Armed Security to support in the event absences and/or after school events at a rate of $25.00 hour for the 2022-2023 school year.

All three new hires have a range of experience making them qualified for these newly created positions. Knouse is a retired Marine with some military police experience. Moyer has worked for the Snyder County Prison and Fisher is a full-time police officer with the Selinsgrove Borough Police.

The armed officers will begin their duties pending completion of Act 235 and NASRO Trainings. The training for an armed security guard is not as extensive as it is for a school police officer. Armed guards do not have the authority to arrest people. However, they do add a layer of protection for the campuses at both ends of the district.

“The hiring of additional police officers or armed security guards has been a matter of discussion at the board level since the spring,” explained Midd-West Superintendent Joe Stroup. “We were excited to have the opportunity to add two great people to our campus that will provide protection, build positive relationships with kids, and be a great part of our teams in the district.”

Teen Driver Safety Week

Edited by Kay Poeth

Teen Driver Safety Week was observed on October 16-22 but is important every day.

“Motor vehicle crashes are a leading cause of death for teens,” said PennDOT Deputy Secretary for Driver and Vehicle Services Kurt Myers. “Parents and teachers have an important role to play in helping new drivers establish safe driving habits.”

From 2017 to 2021, there were 81,364 crashes involving at least one 16- to 19-year-old driver in Pennsylvania, resulting in 480 fatalities. 66 percent of those crashes involved a teen driver driving too fast for conditions (25,721 crashes), driver inexperience (8,707), driver distraction (12,411) or improper/careless turning (13,092). There was a total of 53,673 crashes with one or more of these factors.

The risk of a crash involving any of these factors can be reduced through practice, limiting the number of passengers riding with a new driver, obeying all rules of the road, and using common sense.

“Setting a good example in the driver’s seat is one of the most important things you can do as a parent or caregiver of a teen driver,” said Colonel Robert Evanchick, commissioner of the Pennsylvania State Police. “Positive examples include eliminating distractions in the vehicle, obeying the speed limit, never driving while impaired, and remembering to buckle up every time.”

PennDOT suggests that parents consider the following recommendations to help their children become safe and responsible drivers:

- Set a good example with your own driving habits.
- Have regular conversations with your teen about safe driving skills before they get their learner’s permit.
- Establish a parent/teen driving contract.
- Ride with your teen occasionally after they receive their license to monitor driving skills.
- Enforce observance of speed limits and other rules of the road.
- Strongly encourage your teen to avoid distractions behind the wheel, such as talking or texting on their cell phone.
- Limit the number of passengers they have in their vehicle. State law prohibits 16- and 17-year-olds with a junior license from driving with more than one unrelated passenger under the age of 18 years old for the first six months. After the first six months, a junior driver shall not drive a vehicle with more than three unrelated passengers under 18 years old.
- Limit dawn, dusk, and nighttime driving until your teen gains more experience and enforce a curfew. Remember, state law prohibits 16- and 17-year-olds with a junior license from driving between 11:00 pm and 5:00 am.
- Gradually increase the amount of time/distance your teen is permitted to drive.

“Driving a car requires experience, skill, and undivided attention – all factors that improve with repetition and training,” said Acting Department of Education Secretary Eric Hagarty. “Through driver education training programs, teenage drivers receive valuable instruction that prepares them to get behind the wheel, keeping themselves, their passengers, and fellow drivers safe on the road.”
