

Breakfast With Santa At The Rescue Hose Company

By Kay Poeth

Lucas Sauder and Oakley Sauder update their Christmas wishes with Santa. They are definitely on Santa's Nice list!

Heaven Dillman, Kylyn Dillman, and Holly Dillman enjoyed a delicious Christmas breakfast at the Rescue Hose Company in Beavertown and later a visit with the jolly old elf himself, Santa! These children were all smiles after eating breakfast, chatting with Santa, and picking a stuffed animal to take home!

The Rescue Hose Company in Beaver Springs hosted a Christmas breakfast that included a visit from Santa. Yes, Santa snuck away from his duties at his toy workshop at the North Pole to greet and chat with children of all ages and update their Christmas wish lists.

"We have been coming to the Beavertown Breakfast with Santa as a family tradition for many years ... at least 13 probably longer," said Holly Dillman.

The Helping Hands Organization was also on hand to present each child with a stuffed animal. After they visited with Santa, the children were very excited to be able to choose their own animal and take it home with them.

"It warmed our hearts to see the joy on their faces and the appreciation they showed," said volunteer Bob Rice.

The "Helping Hands" organization was formed last March and is working towards being a hub for "Blessings of Hope" from Lancaster, PA. The Beavertown Rescue Hose Co. has been gracious enough to allow Helping Hands to use their fairgrounds to initiate their food distribution program, which is the first phase of our program. The food distribution takes place every 2nd and 3rd Thursday of each month.

According to Bob Rice, the food distribution starts between 9:30 am and 10:00 am and "all are welcome from any area as we do not have any requirements for eligibility. The stuffed toy distribution program is an extension of the food distribution program and we plan to start other programs in the future."

The goal of The Helping Hands organization is to "show God's love by feeding, caring and unifying each other in order to make our community better."

Home For The Holidays Open House

By Kay Poeth

Chris Rantz, General Manager of The Decorating Center and Country Traditions, poses with the limited edition handcrafted wooden sleigh by T & W Woodworking with arrangement by Keith Phelps that was a special offering during the Home for the Holidays Open House.

Bob Gutheinz, one of the live entertainers during the Home for the Holidays Open House at The Decorating Center, plays Christmas tunes on the hammered dulcimer for the enjoyment of shoppers.

On the weekend of December 5-7, Country Traditions at the Decorating Center hosted their annual Home for the Holidays Open House. The event featured discounts, live entertainment, and holiday décor galore! A limited edition handcrafted wooden sleigh by T & W Woodworking with a pine and bell arrangement design by Keith Phelps was a special offering during the Open House.

"It's our big event of the year. We work to make this event special for the community. Last night (Thursday), we treated several hundred people with a taste from the DC Coffee & Tea café," explained Chris Rantz, General Manager of The Decorating Center and Country Traditions. "We are looking forwards to chatting with familiar faces and meeting new people."

"I love shopping here because they have everything I could ever want," said Cindy Huff of Williamsport enthusiastically. "They have unique items that you can't find anywhere else." And, there is an additional bonus for Huff. "My husband loves it because there are comfy chairs for him while I shop!"

Home for the Holidays also featured 12 vendors selling their wares both inside and outside of the store. The craft booths added to the festive feel of the Open House. "I like that the little pop-up shops are included in the event," said Barb Aucker of Beavertown. "It is a nice idea and makes the public aware of other small businesses in the area."

Barb Conner of Williamsport was busily filling her cart. "The store has all kinds of things to my liking. My house looks just like a miniature Decorating Center!"

Snowy Day With Harper

By Kay Poeth

Harper the Therapy Dog will visit the Middleburg Library for Story Hour on Saturday, January 11 from 10:00-11:30 am.

Harper the Therapy Dog will visit the Middleburg Library on Saturday, January 11 from 10:00-11:30 am for a special reading time. This month Harper and her human family will share winter-themed stories, a craft project, and snacks with guests. So, come and enjoy a good book! There is "snow"-thing like a fun time reading with friends.

During Storytime with Harper, children snuggle up with Harper. Then Harper's owner Angela Franquet and her children Maesyn and Mekenna take turns reading selected themed stories to the group. During Participation Reading, the book is passed and any child or parent that wants a turn can read a page or more. Call the library at 570-837-5931 for more information.

Conrad Weiser Chapter NSDAR Welcomes Fawn Arndt

On December 7, 2019, Fawn Arndt was welcomed as a new member of the Conrad Weiser Chapter NSDAR. Pictured here are: Patty Wetzel, Regent, Fawn Arndt, and Margaret Keller, Chaplain.

On December 7, 2019, Fawn Arndt was welcomed as new member of the Conrad Weiser Chapter NSDAR.

Conrad Weiser is a chapter in the National Society Daughters of the American Revolution (NSDAR). The chapter was formed in 1898 by 12 ladies and played a proud part in the patriotic, philanthropic, historical and educational growth of Snyder County. Four of the founding members were direct descendants of Captain Conrad Weiser.

According to Patty Wetzel, Regent, "The chapter's name honors the memory of the interpreter of the Six Nations of the Indians and White Settlers of Pennsylvania. Conrad Weiser lived for some time among the Mohawks and learned their language, customs and manners. He was a trusted friend of Chief Shikellamy, who gave the Isle of Que to him in exchange for a rifle. The provincial government granted him thousands of acres of land on the bank of the Susquehanna River, where many of his descendants lived, giving the name of Weiserburg to the present town of Selingsgrove."

Today, the chapter has 33 members who meet seven months out of the year at the Susquehanna Valley Country Club in Hummels Wharf, usually on a Saturday at 11am. They always have a speaker who presents a program on many different topics such as historical, educational or patriotic.

In order to become a member of the NSDAR you must have a direct lineage to a Revolutionary War ancestor. Prospective members should visit the DAR.org website and request to become a member.

Conestoga Wood Specialties Supports Local Diaper Pantry

Representing Conestoga Wood Specialties Beavertown employees are: Front: Violet Davis and Christina Sprengel. Back row: Donna Sweigart, Beth Reich, Dustin Reed, Michael Bobb - Executive Director of the MACC, Ange Keiser - Program Director of the MACC, Keith Crossgrove, Darlene Gardner, Beth Roush, and Rebecca McKnight with a donation of diapers and wipes for the Diaper Pantry at the MACC.

The employees of Conestoga Wood Specialties Beavertown participated in a diaper/ diaper wipe drive to benefit a local diaper pantry located at the Middlecreek Community Center in Beaver Springs.

Michael Bobb and Ange Keiser representing the MACC visited the Conestoga Wood Specialties Beavertown location to collect the very generous donations received from the Beavertown employees. They shared that the diaper pantry was established earlier this year out of a visible need in the community. Ange Keiser mentioned that the pantry has been out of diapers for at least a month and a half and this donation is very much needed at this time. Bobb stated that the donations they are taking back to the MACC will allow them to continue to service the local community. Bobb and Keiser both said how thankful the MACC is for the generosity of CWS Beavertown employees.

Winter Extravaganza Creates Holiday Delight

By Kay Poeth

Santa and Mrs. Claus visited with children of all ages at the conclusion of the Winter Extravaganza hosted by the Generoo Organization.

Even the Grinch made an appearance as The Generoo Ensemble performed "You're A Mean One Mr. Grinch" during the Winter Extravaganza that showcased local talent.

Old-fashioned lampposts and holiday wreaths transformed the stage at West Snyder Auditorium into a winter wonderland for the annual Winter Extravaganza hosted by the Generoo Organization. Winter Extravaganza featured 16 performances including vocalists, instrumentalists, radio skits, a dance routine, solo and ensemble pieces showcasing the musical talents of the community. Featured performers included the Generoo Ensemble, Maggie Weader, Kristin Weader, Deb Kline, Randy Renard, Rachel Erdman, Julia Nesbit, Monica Yakamook, Zachary Lepley, Kathy Bingman, Michelle Bixler, Phil Lash, Craig Bingman, Tim Divine, and the tallest elf alias Andre Wagner.

"I'm always happy to be a part of this group," said Maggie Weader. "There is so much talent within all the performers and those that are part of the accompaniment."

"I like to hear The Generoo Ensemble perform," said Isabel Zerby as she settled into her seat. The Generoo Ensemble opened the show by performing "Baby It's Cold Outside." Flautist Maggie Weader played "Sleep, Little Baby," accompanied by her mother, Kristin, on the piano. Deborah Kline shared two lovely pieces, "Noel" and "Have Yourself A Merry Little Christmas." Julia Nesbit interpreted the song "You Make It Feel Like Christmas" using American Sign Language while Rachel Erdman performed a dance routine to "Christmas Soul." Kathy Bingman, Maggie Weader, and Michelle Bixler performed the touching "Night of Silence."

"I am so glad that I came instead of sitting at home alone," said Frona Norman. "I enjoy all the singing." During intermission and prior to the show Messiah Lutheran Church in Troxleville served delicious food and snacks. After intermission, Randy Renard performed "Christmas 1915." In the first act Randy also sang the Christmas classic, "Mary, Did You Know?" Emily Kline performed a clarinet solo to "Away in a Manger." Rounding out the show, Michelle Bixler, Kristin Weader, and Zachary Lepley performed "Zat You, Santa Clause?" Pianist Monica Yakamook performed a Christmas medley to rousing applause. For the finale, The Generoo Ensemble sang the number, "Christmas Vacation."

Just as the snow began to fall onstage, Santa and Mrs. Claus, portrayed by Roger and Linda Walter, arrived. Children of all ages were invited up on stage to greet the visitors from the North Pole. "There's a lot of hard work involved in the show and it showcases talented people from the area. I wish more people would come out to enjoy this annual holiday program," said Linda Walter.

The Generoo Organization was pleased to provide an evening of holiday merriment for the whole family and to showcase local talent. Beverly Kline-Lash was the Artistic Director and Michelle Bixler was the Vocal Director for the event. Andre Wagner was the Sound and Lighting Director.

The Generoo Organization's productions are supported by the generosity of the M&T Bank Foundation, Pennsylvania Council on the Arts, a state agency funded by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and the National Endowment for the Arts, a federal agency, and the Woodcock Foundation for the Appreciation of the Arts, Inc.

Supreme Court Affirms Rape Conviction Against Craig Poust

District Attorney Mike Piecuch (pronounced "Pea-YET-Sue") announced that the state Supreme Court has affirmed Craig L. Poust's rape conviction.

In January 2018, Poust was convicted by a Snyder County jury for the substance-facilitated sexual assault of a 16 year old girl at his Port Trevorton residence in 2012. For that crime, he was subsequently sentenced to 10-15 years in state prison. This sentence is being served consecutively to the sentence of 8 to 18 years he received for his October 2016 conviction on weapons and drug charges.

Poust appealed the convictions in both cases, and in both cases the Superior Court rejected his appeals. The Pennsylvania Supreme Court has now also denied Poust's appeal of his rape conviction.

DA Piecuch said, "I am gratified that the Supreme Court has affirmed the jury's guilty verdict. This validates the courage of all the women who spoke up about Craig Poust's crimes."

Craig Poust is still facing additional charges, along with Chanel H. Kantz, for allegedly committing two substance-facilitated sexual assaults in 2014.

Blessing of the Water

The Orthodox Christian Chapel of the Holy Spirit will hold its annual blessing of Beaver Creek for Theophany on Sunday, January 12 at noon. The creek is located at the intersection of Spruce Street and Center Avenue near Firemen's Memorial Park in Beaver Springs.

The Great Sanctification (or Blessing) of the Water is an ancient tradition in the Church that underscores the Incarnation of God in the flesh of man. It highlights and uplifts the reality that God Who is spirit assumes the flesh of His creation in Jesus Christ, and in so doing manifests the truth that God uses the stuff of creation in the salvation of fallen humanity. Waters sanctified by God becomes the Font of redemption, the New Birth of Baptism. Bread and wine sanctified by God become the holy Body and most precious Blood of the Lamb of God Who takes away the sins of the world. Oil sanctified by God becomes a healing Sacrament. God does not spurn the Virgin's womb but deigns to enter into it and thereby into His world to save us.

You are cordially invited to participate in this great Mystery of divine sanctification and redemption. For more information contact Father David Smith at 570-658-7403 or email: frdavid@holyspirit-oca.org. Plan to attend this ancient tradition of the Blessing of the Water.

Anna M. Haines, 89, Mt. Pleasant Mills

Anna Miriam Haines, 89 of Mt. Pleasant Mills entered into rest on Saturday, December 28, 2019 at her home. She was the wife of the late Marvin Richard "Dick" Haines. Anna was born on March 31, 1930 in Kantz. She was the daughter of the late Calvin and Annie (Maurer) Mull.

Anna was formerly employed at Benner's sewing factory, Mt. Pleasant Mills; and enjoyed being a homemaker most of her life.

She was an active member of Botschaft's (Grubbs) Lutheran Church, Mt. Pleasant Mills and the church's WELCA group. Anna enjoyed cooking, baking, and canning. She loved her family, especially her grandchildren, great grandchildren, and great great granddaughter.

Anna is survived by her daughter and son-in-law, Cathy and David Varner of Salisbury, NC; a daughter-in-law, Peggy Mull of Mt. Pleasant Mills; 5 grandchildren: Trish Jordan and her husband Mike, Tangela Sutherland and her husband Bryan, Leslie Lenig and her husband Kevin, Angela Brock, and Melinda Mull; great grandchildren: Jena and Makena Jordan, Everett and Jorja Sutherland, LaNeisha Springer and her husband John, Colby Sprengel, and Cameron Brock; and a great great granddaughter, Ella Springer; a sister, Grace Brosius of Sunbury, and many nieces and nephews.

Anna was preceded in death by two sons, Lester W. Mull and Richard Eugene "Ricky" Haines in infancy; six sisters: Margaret Pringle, Agnes Markle, Marie Scholl, Helen Scholl, Esther Swartzlander, and Cora Anderson; and four brothers: Oscar, Marlin, Glenn, and Clarence Mull.

Friends and family were invited to the viewing on December 31, 2019 followed by the funeral service at Botschaft's (Grubbs) Lutheran Church, 2148 Hoffer Road, Mt. Pleasant Mills. Officiating will be Rev. Lisa Raylene Barnes, Interim Minister.

Burial was held at the adjoining church cemetery. Memorial gifts may be made in memory of Anna to her church. The George P. Garman Funeral Homes, Inc., 9366 Rt. 35, Mt. Pleasant Mills have been entrusted with the arrangements.

The family would like to say Thank You to Dr. Thomas Krebs, staff, and Hospice of Evangelical for the loving care that they provided for Anna during her illness.

Question: Alice, what is the part B deductible? I just got a bill from one of my providers. I am confused because my Medicare Statement says I have satisfied the deductible for 2019.

Answer: The part B deductible in 2019 is $185. You must pay all Medicare approved costs until you meet the yearly Part B deductible. After your deductible is met, Medicare pays 80% for Part B services. Most people that keep Medicare as their primary, also pair a Medicare Supplement with it. Those quarterly statements that mention your deductible amount can be very misleading. When your statement says you have met the deductible, I tell people that is only in theory. You must actually pay the bills that get mailed to you from those providers. Medicare doesn't know if you have paid your provider.

I teach our clients an exact method for keeping deductible records concise and organized. Buy a cheap folder. Inside on the flap write down the dates of service and the amounts you pay for each provider. Don't worry, you only need to document your first $185 of provider service bills. When a random bill comes into your house, what do you do? You go to your folder, and see if your documented total that you have paid has reached $185. If you have paid that out already my advice is to just wait that bill out. It was probably sent out before payment was received. If you still have some deductible left to meet, then you probably need to pay that provider.

I hope this clears up the mystery of the Medicare notices and the deductible. One last peculiar occurrence is that occasionally a provider never bills or missed billing for a service while in that deductible phase. I believe that rare occurrence will be happening less and less.

Selinsgrove Speedway News

Selinsgrove Speedway Mourns Loss Of Maynard Boop & Tommy Spriggle

Selinsgrove Speedway is mourning the loss this week of a pair of sprint car champions at the historic oval, sprint car owner Maynard Boop of Mifflinburg and sprint car driver Tommy Spriggle of Harrisburg.

Boop, age 99, was the owner of the famed Boop's Aluminum Special No. 1 sprint car that broke records and stunned the sprint car ranks at Selinsgrove and across the nation from 1976 through 1982.

Overall his mounts scored 111 sprint car feature wins along with numerous track and series titles.

The Boop's car was the Central Pennsylvania KARS owner champion mount in 1977, 1979 and in 1980 while it also scored the KARS driver titles in 1979 and 1980.

At Selinsgrove Speedway alone, the Boop's No. 1 took the 1982 track title with Dillsburg's Lynn Paxton at the wheel while taking 10 wins on the season.

Paxton/Boop also won the Selinsgrove Jack Gunn Memorial in 1981, scored a Labor Day win in 1982 and also beat the World of Outlaws Sprint Cars Series at the oval in 1982.

The last of Boops 111 overall career owner wins also came at Selinsgrove Speedway, with Randy Wolfe at the wheel in October, 1982.

Spriggle, age 75, was the 1977 Selinsgrove Speedway sprint car track champion.

Spriggle and his No. 42 super sprint campaigned for decades at Selinsgrove Speedway and around the region before competing regularly later in his career in the 358 sprint car ranks.

His son Alan is also a former regular 358 sprint campaigner at the Snyder County oval.

The staff and management of Selinsgrove Speedway extend its sincerest sympathy to the family and friends of both late sprint car legends at this time of loss.

Full obituaries and funeral service information for both men can be found via links at the speedway's official website, www.selinsgrovespeedway.com.
