

Hassinger House Damaged in Crash on New Berlin Highway

By Kay Poeth

On Thursday, October 30, 2025 at approximately 12:45-1:00 pm, a car crashed into the home of Jarred and Kayla Hassinger, located at 281 New Berlin Highway in Middleburg. Jarred Hassinger and his father were in the barn across the street when they heard a crack as the vehicle hit the telephone pole and then another crack after the vehicle slid across the lawn and hit Jarred's truck and the front of the house. They did not see the accident happen. As they looked out of the barn door, they saw that the car had hit the house. They rushed across the street to check on the occupants. There were 2 adults, a man and a woman, and an 11-month-old baby. All the occupants were taken to the hospital by ambulance. There were no life-threatening injuries.

The vehicle hit the front corner of the house in the back section where the office and part of the living room are located. Some of the foundation was damaged. Jarred's truck was also damaged but drive-able temporarily. The truck will also need to be repaired. The appraiser from the insurance company has not yet evaluated the damage. Jarred and Kayla are awaiting the estimate so they can begin repairs.

Luckily, no one was home at the time of the crash. Kayla had only entered her shop about 45 minutes prior to the crash. Jarred called her and she immediately drove home, arriving about 15 minutes after his call.

It had just finished raining. The road was wet and slippery. The driver lost control and hit the pole, truck, and house. The accident is under investigation by the Pennsylvania State Police in Selinsgrove who were dispatched to the scene. The report has not yet been released. "Please slow down around that corner," Kayla Hassinger pleaded.

The Meaning of Veterans Day

By Kay Poeth

Veterans Day was established to honor all of those who have served the country both in war and peace, dead or alive. Veterans Day is intended to thanks living veterans for their sacrifices. For those who served in the military, Veterans Day pays homage to freedom, sacrifice, and honor.

Originally, Veterans Day was called Armistice Day. It commemorated the end of World War I which formally concluded at the 11th hour of the 11th day of the 11th month of 1918 when the Armistice with Germany went into effect. It signaled the end of hostilities during the Great War. It is referred to as the end of "the war to end all wars."

Armistice Day was renamed Veterans Day in 1954 after World War II "required the greatest mobilization of soldiers and sailors, Marines and airmen" in U.S. history. At the urging of veterans and veteran service organizations, the proclamation was changed. It became a day to honor American veterans of all wars. President Eisenhower signed the bill proclaiming November 11 as Veterans Day.

Each year The Veterans Day National Ceremony is held at Arlington National Cemetery. On November 11 at precisely 11 am a wreath is laid at the Tomb of the Unknowns and the ceremony continues inside the Memorial Amphitheater with a parade of colors of veterans' organizations followed by remarks from dignitaries. The ceremony honors and thanks all who have served in the United States Armed Forces.

There is a distinct difference between Memorial Day and Veterans Day. Memorial Day honors military personnel who have died while serving in the military. Memorial Day is a day of remembrance. Veterans Day honors living and deceased American veterans for their love of country, patriotism, and willingness to sacrifice for their country. Veterans Day is day of appreciation and gratitude for all who have served. That is why we say, "Thank you for your service" on Veterans Day.

What a World Series! I know it's been almost a week since the last out but I can't stop thinking about everything that happened throughout the series. Call it recency bias but in my mind that was the most exciting World Series I can remember. I've been watching them since 1971 when the Pirates beat the Orioles four games to three.

We all knew who the stars were before the series. Ohtani, Freeman and Betts for the Dodgers. Guerrero, Scherzer and Springer for the Blue Jays. How many of you knew who Yescavage, Clement, Yamamoto and Miggy Rojas were before this series? All four of them set or tied all-time World Series records.

One could say that Toronto lost the series and LA didn't win it. If Toronto's Kiner-Falefa gets a three foot bigger lead off third base with the bases loaded and doesn't slide at the force-out at home plate the Blue Jays win. Before the first game I wanted Toronto to win, halfway through Game 7 I didn't want either team to lose.

Baseball fans from Saskatchewan to Southern California, from Toronto to Tokyo were held captive by the game's beautiful, torturous, addictive power. It was, in every way, the best baseball has to offer.

Playoff baseball is over but we still have all four of our schools competing in the second season. I predicted back in August that we would have four teams win a district title this Fall sports season. If Mifflinburg beats Montoursville on the football field Friday night they will be our fourth district titlist ... more on that game later.

Lewisburg boys soccer beat Midd-West in the 2A district final. The Selinsgrove boys won their fourth consecutive soccer 3A district title over top-seeded Athens 1-0. Grove field hockey continued rolling on by beating Central Columbia 3-1 for their chip.

My most anticipated rematch was Lewisburg vs Midd-West in the district final. Lewisburg's Viktor Permyashkin and Keagan Crosby goals provided the winning margin. Crosby assisted on Viktor's goal as well. Both teams moved onto the state tourney.

Lewisburg (21-0-1) beat undefeated District 2 champ Lake Lehman 3-2 in the first round of states. Permyashkin scored the game's first two goals and was blowing kisses to the Lehman student section. Crosby scored the game winner. Lake Lehman had only given up four goals all year. Lehman did score two goals to make it interesting but Lewisburg moves on to play Devon Prep on Saturday in the quarterfinals.

Midd-West (17-3-1) lost 10-3 to defending state champ Northwestern Lehigh in New Tripoli. Midd-West made it 2-1 when Abram Sellers scored on a corner kick. NW Lehigh led 4-1 at the half before winning and moving on.

Nick Bisaccia's goal is all the Grove boys soccer team needed to beat Athens. Strong defense, only allowing two shots on goal and the transfers from Norry Christian of the Bisaccia Brothers was the winning formula. Younger brother Josiah helped set up brother Nick's goal.

Selinsgrove (10-9-2) lost 5-0 to Abington Heights in Clarks Summit in the first round of states. It was definitely a step up in competition for the District 4 champs.

In Grove's field hockey (19-3) district title win Emma Petersen got the Seals started. Her goal was followed by Violet Shaffer's game winner off a feed from Nora Moyer. Ella Heath put the game away with Petersen assisting in the 3-1 win.

In the first round of states Selinsgrove lost to Greenwood 1-0, the #5 seed from district 3. It was the second time the Seals lost to Greenwood this year and the second time they were shut out this year.

Mifflinburg (16-5) got into the state tourney on Kira Shoemaker's lone goal to beat third-seeded Bloom for third place in the district and entry into states. The Cats lost 5-0 to D3 champion Boiling Springs in the first round of states on Tuesday. District 3 qualified six teams into the state 1A tourney, Clearly District 3 has the best 1A field hockey as five teams won their opening round games.

Lewisburg girls Cross Country finished third at states. Baylee Espinosa's 10th place finish ended her stellar high school career with four top 10 finishes at states .... 9th, 1st, 9th and 10th. Theo Wilkinson finished 19th for Lewisburg. Grove's Lake Dent finished 62nd.

Green Dragon's Justin Nolt medaled with a 12th place finish helping the team to finish 9th at states. It was a total team effort as Ian Cavanagh and Hugh Ikeda Shields finished 40th and 56th respectively.

Mifflinburg football won their D4 lid-lifter with a 56-14 thumping of 5X defending district champion Danville. The Ironmen hung tough for a quarter at 14-14. The Cats proceeded to put up 29 points before halftime for a 43-14 lead at the break.

Seth Hartman, Landon Moser and Chad Martin all had rushing TDs. Larry Murray had another highlight reel catch for a 28 yard touch from QB Martin. Mifflinburg gained over 400 yards in the first half to move onto the district final.

They will host second-seed Montoursville Friday night as Miff will attempt to win their first district title since 2002. Mifflinburg beat Montour 35-7 in the fourth week of the season. This game will be a lot closer as the Warriors have gone 6-1 since that loss. Both teams lost to Southern Columbia by similar scores since they played each other.

Stepping up to the college level and the first CFP rankings have come out with the Big 10 and SEC having all the teams ranked 1 through 7. The top four are Ohio St, Indiana, Texas A&M and Alabama and sure to change before the final ranking. My biggest surprise is Texas all the way up to #13.

These rankings mean a lot more than the ridiculous pre-season college football polls which are a farce. Evidence of this besides Texas and Penn State is another pre-season Top 5 team in Clemson. Dabo Swinney's team (3-5) is assured of their worst season since 2010 (6-7).

Clemson's slide started three years ago because Dabo refused to adapt to the NIL/portal era. Tony Elliott was a twelve year member of Dabo's staff and offensive coordinator for five years. Elliott took the Virginia head coaching job in 2022 and his Cavaliers are alone in first place in the ACC.

The college game of the week on Saturday will be BYU at Texas Tech. You can Thank me later. Bill Belichick got his first Power 4 win when his North Carolina team beat Syracuse last Friday night. Syracuse coach Fran Brown inexplicably started a true freshman walk-on from the lacrosse team! I've heard lacrosse players are great athletes but a first year walk-on?

I had trouble envisioning Miami Hurricanes coach Mario Cristobol being able to land the plane when "The U" was flying high and ranked #2 in early October. Cristobol's record in games played in November and later is 4-11. He has six losses as a double digit favorite and continues to be the coach that does less with more.

Nebraska has lost a staggering 29 straight games to ranked opponents. For comparison, the much maligned James Franklin was 15-28 when playing ranked teams with Penn State.

Speaking of Penn State, there was a targeting call against Ohio State that was not upheld after a booth review. I've never seen a more blatant example of what they define as targeting. Using forcible contact with the head or neck area of an opponent, particularly a defenseless player, or for initiating contact by launching with the crown of the helmet.

The call had no outcome on the result of the game but both college and professional football has to get on the same page as to what constitutes targeting. They both profess to the protection and health of the players but are falling woefully short in supporting it.

In the NFL the Buffalo Bills handed the KC Chiefs a loss for the fifth straight time in the regular season. If they could only beat them in the playoffs. The Baltimore Ravens will catch and pass the Steelers in their division despite Pittsburgh's surprising win over the Colts.

The Arizona Cardinals were a fun watch playing the clueless Cowboys on Monday night. I'm not sure if it's because watching Brissett play QB instead of the injured Murray or the fact they beat the Cowboys. Does anyone know why oft-injured Washington QB Jayden Daniels was still in the game when the Commanders had no chance to win? He is now out for the year with a dislocated elbow.

Why don't defenders use their arms when attempting a tackle, especially defensive backs? The Bengals Jordan Battle offered a shoulder to tackle Bears tight end Colston Loveland who shook the feeble tackle off and ran 35 yards for the game winning score. I remember Roy Shifflet, an old high school football coach that taught the stick, slam, isso technique that was very effective.

The Eagles remain in first place and are going to stay there because of one person. Their GM Howie Roseman has been making trades to upgrade his defensive depth as he is always looking to improve his team.

Another big-time college has fired their football coach. Auburn gave Hugh Freeze the pink slip and I thought I could go an entire article without mentioning college coach firings.

Civil War Soldier Lies in Selinsgrove's Union Cemetery

By George Vacca

Henry F. Long,
Private, Company I, Harrisburg, Pa.

On a wind swept knoll in Selinsgrove's Union Cemetery lies the earthly remains of Henry F. Long. Between his birth in 1841 and death in 1924, his life intersected with some of our country's most historic moments.

Henry was born September 3rd, 1841 in Saville Township, Perry County. He considered the 1861 Confederate attack on Fort Sumter "treasonous" and followed ensuing events with each newspaper delivered to his family's farm. By the Autumn of 1862, he was convinced more men were needed to keep the Confederacy from "destroying the union."

"On the very day when the battle of Antietam was fought," Henry later recalled, "I was in my father's field cutting clover seed. A neighbor and friend of mine came along the road who invited me to go with him to New Bloomfield, to enlist in Captain John B. McCallister's cavalry company. The invitation was accepted, the cradle was hung on the fence, and I joined my friend on the way to New Bloomfield, stopping however long enough at my father's home to say good-by."

By late September 1862, Henry F. Long had been enrolled in Company I of the 17th Pennsylvania Cavalry and was being drilled in the Harrisburg area, where, "we were furnished with horses and other equipments. I considered myself most fortunate in having assigned me a good horse that proved one of the best in the company. I became very much attached to him, and he served me well."

Less than three months later, Henry's horse would provide some of that service. Just after the Battle of Fredericksburg in December, the 17th clashed with Confederate cavalrymen near Occoquan, Virginia. Private Long wrote, "being on the flank with several others, the Rebels expected to cut off our retreat. But, remembering, 'That he who fights and runs away, may live to fight another day,' we did our very best to escape; and here is where my faithful horse saved me from being captured." The disorderly rout was indeed an inauspicious beginning for the 17th, but the new regiment was outnumbered and facing none other than the elite veterans of JEB Stuart's Rebel horsemen.

The 17th shivered through the winter, along with the rest of the Army of the Potomac, in a Stafford County, Virginia camp. As winter turned to spring, prospects for Private Long and the 17th improved. The regiment's brigade was now in the division of Brigadier General John Buford, one of the premier cavalymen in the Federal Army. Private Long was assigned to be an orderly for Major General George Meade, and was therefore stationed at Meade's headquarters during the Battle of Chancellorsville. His duties included the dangerous task of galloping up and down the line, carrying the written orders of General Meade to those under his command.

In the weeks following the Battle of Chancellorsville, the Federal Cavalry's performance blossomed. Running gun and saber battles with JEB Stuart's Rebels occurred in Brandy Station, Aldie, Middleburg and Upperville, VA and the Union horsemen were fighting their Confederate counterparts on equal terms. "Orderlies for messenger duty were almost constantly in demand and their services were most arduous" wrote Long. "We were in the saddle almost day and night."

The 17th arrived in Gettysburg on June 30th. "As we rode through the streets of Gettysburg my patriotic heart was stirred because of our warm reception. The college boys sang, at another place a group of girls sang....and still a little later a number of young ladies sang the Star Spangled Banner for us. We were not accustomed to such welcome greetings, and our hearts were greatly cheered."

The regiment camped that night in the field just south of the Mummasburg Road, near the current location of the Peace Light on Oak Hill. After a night of picket duty, the men steeled themselves to meet the approaching enemy - Rebels under the command of Henry Heth, coming in numbers that would far exceed General Buford's line of cavalymen. "The fighting now commenced in earnest. We were dismounted, sent our horses to the rear, took a position behind a stone wall which extended along the ridge, and successfully resisted several charges made by the enemy until we were relieved by the First Corps." July 2nd found the 17th picketing and fighting in places burned into American history: the Peach Orchard, the Wheat Field, Devil's Den and Little Round Top.

Over the next year, Private Long would keep several more appointments with landmarks in our Nation's story. The 17th would do notable service at Todd's Tavern just before the famous Battles of Spotsylvania and then at Yellow Tavern. It would be at the next battle - Cold Harbor - where Private Long's service would come to an end.

"During the engagement at Cold Harbor, May 31, 1864, we made several mounted charges, on the enemy's line, but failed to dislodge him. We were then dismounted and charged again over the same ground, in an open field, when two bullets struck me in my left arm. I was removed to an improvised hospital, established in an old grain barn and, during the night, my left arm was amputated. The following day, with other wounded, I suffered a painful ride over rough corduroy roads, in a heavy army wagon, to White House Landing where we were placed on transports to Washington, D. C."

The war behind him, Henry F. Long opened a new chapter in 1867, entering the Missionary Institute at Selinsgrove and graduating from the Theological Department. (The Missionary Institute is now Susquehanna University, within sight of Henry's grave.) Reverend Long would both pastor and plant Lutheran churches in Pennsylvania, Kansas, Georgia and Illinois before retiring back to his home state of Pennsylvania at the turn of the century.

After the death of their only child (Dora, nine months old) Rev. Long and his wife Hannah adopted three children. In 1924, Henry's extraordinary life came to an end. It was reported that he was struck by a streetcar in Harrisburg and died a week later from his injuries.

Henry Long's headstone not only includes his date of birth and death, but also the inscription, "Co. I 17th Regt PA Cavalry." The engraving testifies to the impact of the Civil War years, an impact shared by tens of thousands of other American soldiers who carried their experiences to their graves.

The words of President Abraham Lincoln echo through the years challenging each generation to be dedicated to the "great task remaining before us, that from these honored dead we take increased devotion to that cause for which they gave the last full measure of devotion."

Linda Gail George, 80, Selinsgrove

Linda passed away on Wednesday, October 29, 2025, at Nursing and Rehabilitation at The Mansion, Sunbury.

Joe, our Pa and husband, passed away peacefully on November 2, 2025 after a brief illness.

He was born on June 25, 1935 to George and Ruth (Freed) Norman. After graduating from Beaver Vocational High School in 1953, Pa went on to earn a Mechanical Engineering degree at Penn State University. Throughout his life, Pa was known for creative problem solving, being a great cook (famous for his Tickie Stickies), having a witty sense of humor, and being the boss. He always made time for family and supported us.

In retirement, Pa enjoyed traveling with Mom throughout the United States and overseas. Some of his favorite trips were to Alaska, Germany, PSU bowl games, and Fall leaf-peeping. He was an avid gardener and landscaper, and especially delighted in sharing his “surprise lilies” with others.

He is survived by his 3 children, Jodi Norman (Scott Moyer), Brett Norman (Alecia) and Shawn Norman (Beth); a grandson, Derek Norman (Jessica); two granddaughters, Megan Benjamin (Andrew) and Ashley Kelsey (Dave); 3 great-grandchildren; a brother and sister-in-law, Robert and Diane Norman; his 4-legged buddies Remi and Kacy; as well as friends and extended family members who will miss him dearly.

In lieu of flowers, please consider making a donation to your favorite charity in our Pa’s name.

The family finds comfort in knowing that Pa’s legacy lives on through the lessons he taught us, the love he shared, and the memories we will cherish forever.

Brian Lee Wray, Sept. 19-1956- Oct. 29-2025

Brian passed peacefully Oct. 29, 2025.

He was a 1974 graduate of West Snyder High School, after graduatinghe attended Tech school in Pittsburgh where he studied HVAC. He then moved to York, where he worked for Weis, and met his wife, Penny. They returned to his hometown, Beavertown, in 1986, where they built a home and raised three sons. Brian worked at Woodmode and literally kept the lights on. He was known to stroll the cabinet making shop on a buggy, where, due to his height, he could change the bulbs with no ladder required.

Brian loved telling stories about his youth basketball and baseball experiences, and of the men’s softball team he traveled on For many years he served as coach, president, treasurer, secretary and groundskeeper for the Beavertown Little League, on which all three of his sons played.

He loved hunting is his tree stand “Motel 6” on Shade Mountain. His years of dedication paid off with his final trophy being a record-breaking mega buck.

He was a talented carpenter and handyman. He was especially famous for being able to fix almost anything with silicone caulk or wood glue, and his critique of others handyman skills was renowned.

Brian was a tough old bird, and despite his medical challenges could be caught splitting wood with his prosthetics tossed to the side, or swearing after his prosthetic stuffed into a boot fell off a roof he was working on. He refused to be slowed down by or stopped by something as silly as losing his legs.

In his retirement, Brian enjoyed ruffling the feathers of family members and spending time with his granddaughters. The father of three sons found his softer side in his granddaughters. They were the light of his life and, whether watching a dance recital, school programs, or sports, his eyes lit up watching and bragging about them.

Brian was preceded in death by his mother, Donna Mae Goss Wray, his father Gerald Franklin Wray, and brother-in-law Jay Moyer. He is survived by his wife Penny Wray, sons Justin Wray, Adam Wray, and Sam Wray; daughter in laws Lauren Wray and Brittany Wray; Granddaughters’ Taylor, Hadlee, Sadie, Rylee, Emma, and Georgia; five siblings and their spouses, and numerous cousins, nieces and nephews.

A service will be held November 8, 2025 at 5pm at Grace Covenant Community Church in Middleburg.

It's the Future!

Paid for by David L. Faust
Selingsgrove

We don't know for sure what the future will bring us; however, there are some things that should happen sometime in the future for Snyder County. The first thing is that the two school districts should be consolidated into one administrative district. It's hard to believe that taxpayers have been willing to pay for two administrations this long. With one administrative unit, all of the employees would be paid at the same rate, according to their classification.

Duplicate bus runs could be eliminated, and students could attend the school that has the best program of studies for their interests and future plans.

With the number of volunteers declining, and the number of duplicate firefighting equipment increasing with higher costs, it's time for Snyder County to provide fire protection with paid firefighters, placed at various locations throughout the county.

The same is true for police protection. At the present time, only certain communities provide local police protection, funded by these communities. Snyder County should provide local police protection for all residents, funded by all of the county taxpayers.

In addition, Snyder County should have a community college for those students who prefer to live at home in order to cut the expense of higher educations. This community college could also serve students from adjoining counties, with the costs shared by those counties.

Finally, Snyder County needs a local hospital, centrally located, to serve all of its residents.

Friends of RB Winter Invite Volunteers to Attend Autumn Clean-Up

Edited by Kay Poeth

Friends of RB Winter will host Autumn Cleanup on Saturday, November 15 from 9:00 am to noon. Volunteers will begin the event by meeting at the Environmental Learning Center, at 9:00 am and divide into groups. The group will primarily focus on picking up trash along Route 192 between McCall Dam Road and Stover Gap Road. For volunteers with children who would like to participate, they will help by searching for and picking up trash in the park's day-use area and around Halfway Lake. To register visit, friendsofrbwinter.org/cleanup.

The Friends will provide gloves, trash bags, and safety vests. Please bring a water bottle and wear weather-appropriate clothing. As we'll be working in grassy areas along the road's edges, insect repellent is highly recommended, and checking for ticks afterward is advised!

Afterward, the volunteers will return to the Environmental Learning Center for a lunch provided by the Friends!

The mission of Friends of RB Winter State Park is to conserve, support, and protect the park's resources by promoting education, responsible recreation and stewardship for present and future generations.

The Friends of Raymond B. Winter State Park formed in May 2021 to provide volunteers at the Raymond B Winter State Park Complex and its subsidiary parks, McCalls Dam State Park, Ravensburg State Park, and Sand Bridge State Park, to contribute to the conservation and stewardship of the parks and their resources.

The Friends are happy to offer many multiple items for sale in the park office. The Park Office is open Monday through Friday from 8 am to 4 pm and on select times during the weekend. Payment for items sold by the Friends of R. B. Winter State Park must be made via cash or check only.

If you are interested in volunteer opportunities with the Friends of R B Winter State Park possible volunteer projects include trail maintenance, fundraising, landscaping, assisting with educational programs, invasive plant removal, litter cleanup, and more. For more information, email: friendsofrbwinter@gmail.com.

Remember to mark your calendars for Saturday, November 15 from 9:00 am to noon to volunteer for the Friends of RB Winter's Autumn Cleanup, located at 17215 Buffalo Road in Mifflinburg.
